

Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter I.O.D.E. Fashion Show Draws Full House

Morrow Sisters Heard
Skirt and Sweater Set Won
By Mrs. P. Merrill, Stirling

"Prelude To Spring," sponsored by the Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter, at Stirling Theatre on Wednesday evening, was a springtime of exotic colour. The setting, a French salon, was most effective in its simplicity with tall white pillars topped with Easter bonnets and draped with royal blue caught with gay spring flowers. The immediate Past Regent, Mrs. H. Wood, welcomed the capacity crowd and introduced the commentator, Mrs. Edwin Warren, Regent, who carried on her duties in a most capable manner. She was very lovely in powder blue shantung two piece suit from Milady's and D'Arce's, with blue dream hat decked with chiffon poppies, from Woodley's, rose costume jewelry, aurora borealis, from O'Connor's Jewel Box and a sapphire mink stole from Woodley Furriers.

Very chic styles from the Children's Shop were modelled by the very young teen-agers, highlight of the occasion being a birthday party, complete with cake, candles and gifts, and each guest attired in the latest spring fashions—frilly nylon and organdie over wee crinolines for the "little" ladies and suits for the little boys, completely washable and tailored to grow with the young fellow for two sizes.

Fashions for the girl with the grown-up airs were smart and good-looking and included sport separates, top coats, suits, afternoon dresses and party gowns.

Milady and D'Arce's costumes from sport clothing to the very fancy for evening wear were radiant, new-look fashions, with mint green the leading colour. For the career girls "on the go" were many light hearted and pretty styles, the ever popular shirt-maker leading the casual wear. For the half sizes the gowns were softly pleated and flattering to the figure. The silk negligees have a lifted look achieved by high placed details, belts, buttons, bows and pockets, big collars, dropped shoulder seams, and a wider look. Spring colours have the clear sparkle of crystal, sunlit greens, blues, yellows, blondes, corals and pure pink, while black and navy achieve an easy sophistication.

The important fabrics are soufflé mohair, soufflé, tulle, French crepes, English cottons, silk chiffon and printed silks, nylon organza and fullness.

The suits were softly feminine with decollete necklines, neatly fitted dressmakers, tailored classics, the suit with the large standaway collar and the 3 piece ensemble. Coats are unmistakably 1959 with the easy flowing lines and gently graduated fullness.

Hats by Woodley's are tall, smaller, worn off the face, sailors, bouffants and toques are the important silhouettes. The hats in fashion now clear the brow, clear the neck and are being pushed off the back of the head, and were fashioned from Milan straw, Balibuntle, Panamale, Perle Visca, flowers and flower petals, ready to burst at the first sign of spring.

Furs from Woodley Furriers included the jacket for the important mid-season fashion. Mink leads the list for both day and evening, but very popular is grey Persian lamb, also fashion approved for the approaching season. Jackets are 25 inches long or the new car coat length, long, straight cut lines, no back fullness, with narrow tapered sleeves, patch pockets and rolled collars. Also shown were mouton, black Persian lamb and muskrat. The Canadian wild mink, in brown sapphire mink stoles and a wild mink pocket stole were beautiful soft and feminine looking.

No fashion show would be complete without a bride scene and this was no exception. The bride's mother wore navy crepe with tucked all round skirt and pink accessories. The bridesmaids were styled in silk organza over taffeta with dropped torso waistline, gathered pleats flowing to a full skirt, scooped neckline and shirred up sleeves in shades of blue and green and romance blue. The maid of honour wore coral silk chiffon over taffeta with a high cummerbund waistline, shirred up sleeves with a high scoop neckline and a low V back with full skirt. The bride wore the ultimate in a bridal gown. The flowing skirt with its tier upon tier of net and embroidery with scalloped edging on each tier, made it a very full flowing garment. The fine Swiss bodice and long lily-point sleeves. The neckline was square cut front and back with scalloped and embroidered edges. The crown headpiece of lace and seed pearls, trimmed with sequins and rhinestones and finger-tip veil of edge completed the perfect bride outfit. The bride's mother, Mrs. P. Merrill, was dressed in a sapphire mink stole, from O'Connor's Jewel Box supplied all the costume jewelry for the fashions. Highlighting the season is aurora borealis in rose and blue, cut crystal and pearls in soft shades. Drop earrings,

Secondary School Education In Stirling Subject of Discussion

Members of the Municipal Councils and the School Board Met Here Thursday

The future of Secondary School Education in Stirling-Rawdon District Area was the subject under discussion at a well attended meeting of municipal councils from Stirling, Rawdon, Sidney and Frankford, and the District High School Area Board, held in the home economics room of the local school on Thursday night last.

Don W. Rodgers, chairman of the Stirling-Rawdon District High School Board, presided and after welcoming the representatives from the various municipalities, gave a brief outline of the problem facing the local Board.

"For the last two years, or since the conception of this new school area, it has been evident that accommodation in our school was strained," stated Mr. Rodgers. Classes were being held in space that certainly never was intended as classrooms. Lighting in these areas was extremely poor, to the detriment of good health in our pupils. Not only were the fixtures outdated but windows were lacking. However, regardless of the school condition, the old area board had been unable to satisfy the Department that the need was urgent.

But we realized that, from surveys previously taken, a steady pupil growth was evident, if slow, and that eventually an addition was inevitable. Upon receiving the results of a recent completed survey at Christmas time, it was evident that the time for action was not only here but was urgent. We will have, unless some unforeseen thing happens, a class on hand for September 1959 that we don't know hardly where to place.

With this in mind at the early January meeting, we reviewed the situation with which we were faced. At that time it appeared we had three courses of action: (a) to build an entirely new school; (b) to build an addition to the present school in such a manner that it could architecturally be conveniently enlarged; (c) to exclude the county pupils from the

C of C Directors Hold Meeting

The directors of the Stirling Chamber of Commerce met on Tuesday evening in the Council Chambers with a fair number in attendance.

A committee of Wm. Morton, Graham Mouch and Robert Hutton was named to procure a Secretarial candidate at the earliest opportunity. Mr. Robert Murat, Bank of Montreal Accountant, was named Treasurer to succeed Mr. O. McNabb, who was recently transferred.

Mr. Grange Elliott, O.L.S., of Peterborough, addressed the gathering, speaking on various aspects of town planning. His remarks were very informative and educational. He pointed out that indifference to planning now could cost a community a good deal of tax dollars later on to rectify errors. He stated that industry feels more secure and are more liable to locate in a well planned community.

It isn't too late — let's get it over with.

The next director's meeting is called for Monday, March 16th at 8.00 p.m. in the Council Chambers, when it is hoped most of the directors will be in attendance to plan the annual meeting.

And please, if you have the ability to act as a Chamber Secretary, won't you consider it seriously if approached. We need one — now.

Guests At Scout Banquet

Mr. and Mrs. J. Irish were guests at the Campbellford Scout and Cub father and son banquet, Saturday night, February 28th. The banquet was held in the United Church with 214 fathers and sons in attendance.

Mr. J. Irish attended the Mother and Son banquet of the Havelock Cub Pack on Tuesday evening, March 3rd. One hundred mothers and sons sat down to a turkey dinner put on by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church. Following the banquet films were shown by Mr. Childes, of Havelock.

We debated the results at some length and felt that the course of action outlined in (b) seemed the most advisable for these reasons. In (a) a new school seemed at this time to be a back-breaking burden to place upon the Village of Stirling, who are already assuming a fair debenture load and are faced with some small growing pains now.

The course as outlined in (c) appeared most unreasonable as these county pupils were pupils from Sidney and in all probability a good percentage of whom would be sending their children to this school as had their parents and grandparents before them. Not only that, but through the cost of education, a share equal in proportion to that of either of the other concerned municipalities had been contributed by Sidney Township for years past. Also, the economic welfare of the Village as a whole would be damaged in the long term by such action.

An open discussion followed with Dr. W. S. Turner, Inspector, answering various questions.

Reeve H. Hamilton, of Sidney Township, explained that Sidney paid for the cost of education of its pupils in Belleville, Trenton and Stirling, and he felt the ratepayers were quite satisfied with the present arrangement. The Township had an agreement with Belleville and Trenton regarding the attendance of pupils from a specified area and the Council would be willing to make a similar agreement with Stirling whenever it was requested. Deputy-Reeve Gerald Irvine spoke in similar vein.

Reeve W. Rose, of Frankford, explained the situation as regards that municipality; which couldn't join an area because of Sidney not belonging to an area.

Reeve James Spry, of Rawdon, spoke in favour of delaying any construction until it was absolutely necessary.

The problem now is how and where will the necessary accommodation for the 1959-60 attendance be provided.

"Cottons May Be Smart" Completed By 4-H Homemaking Clubs

Achievement Day Held In Stirling Sat., February 28th
— 12 Clubs Participated

Saturday last, February 28th, was Achievement Day for the 4-H Homemaking Clubs of South Hastings. Twelve Clubs and ninety-eight members participated in the event in the Stirling Community Hall.

The unit "Cottons May Be Smart" was started in the County last Fall with twenty-one Clubs and twenty finished this winter. The Achievement Day for the northern part of the County, including eight Clubs with sixty-two members, was held in Madoc February 21st.

The 4-H Homemaking Club program is organized and conducted by the County Home Economist of the Ontario Department of Agriculture Extension Branch. Mrs. A. E. Sauve, Hastings County Home Economist, was assisted with this programme by Mrs. G. Smith, Prince Edward and Northumberland County Home Economist. Miss F. P. Eadie, Supervisor of the Home Economics Service, Toronto, assisted with the South Hastings Achievement Day.

Forty club leaders voluntarily gave their services in helping these one hundred and sixty girls successfully complete the project, so that each member received a great deal of pride and satisfaction from her cotton dress and record book, which she was required to complete before Achievement Day.

The members' record books and dresses were on display at the Achievement Day and many of the girls' mothers attended the day's programme of skits, demonstrations and exhibits put on by the girls themselves. Each girl modelled her dress as well as taking an active part in judging classes and activity classes. A total of twenty-two members for the County received a County Honour Certificate and pin for completing 3rd Homemaking Club projects. Provincial Honours are awarded for completion of twelve projects. Sixty-two members received a Certificate of Achievement. A certificate of achievement is awarded for completion of every two projects. Each club member and leader received a Homemaking Club sterling silver teaspoon.

Homemaking Clubs are study and work clubs for rural girls and young women, between the ages of 12 and 26. Clubs may be organized in any community where four or more girls are willing to attend eight club meetings and carry on the club programme under the guidance of a local leader and an assistant leader. In April the summer programme for Hastings County will be organized and anyone wishing further information should contact their County Home Economist. A girl must be 12 by March 1st, 1959 in order to join the summer club of "Clothes Closets Up To Date."

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

It was a King who said "Thy Word have I hid in my heart." Should hydrogen bombs rain down their tremendous destructive force on the people of the earth tomorrow, the chances are good that copies of the Bible would be preserved. At scattered points across this North American Continent well printed Bibles are stored against such an emergency.

At one carefully selected mid-American site 240 volumes in 150 languages are kept. Bibles, as well as plates and mats for printing more, are deposited overseas at key points. This has been done to assure the safe-keeping of the Scriptures.

The British and Foreign Bible Society helps individuals to store Scriptures in the mind by offering a free

A Letter To The Editor

Mr. H. R. Tompkins,
Editor, Stirling News-Argus,
Stirling, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Tompkins:

Last Tuesday evening, the hockey fans of Stirling and district were given a black eye. I refer to the disgraceful conduct of a minority of thoughtless individuals who threw snow, ice, pieces of hockey sticks, nails and even a soft-drink bottle at a visiting team and referee.

I do not believe that the actions of these so-called fans should pass unnoticed; nor should the good name of the majority of our real hockey fans suffer because of the actions of a few misguided, irresponsible persons who can only be referred to as poor sports.

As a member of the O.M.H.A. Executive I would like to point out that since our organization cannot exercise any control over an arena management, we must therefore hold the manager and coach of the home club responsible for the conduct of the fans in their arena. I can point to several instances where a game or series has been called and awarded to the visiting club simply because a group of hostile ruffians caused more trouble than the home team officials could cope with.

Last Tuesday's game was a good, clean game (4 penalties in all) — and yet, because a group of thoughtless, unsportsmanlike fans took exception to a penalty called by the visiting referee, both teams were forced to finish the game under menacing and dangerous circumstances. These persons could easily have caused the home team to lose the series right then and there.

Perhaps the most important and most serious possible consequence could have been that any boy who participated in the game could have been seriously injured. There is no sensible excuse for the actions of the persons who were responsible.

The main object of minor hockey is not to create champions. Rather it is to give every boy an opportunity to play the game of hockey, and by this means to teach the principles of fair play, respect for the rules and for authority, and good sportsmanship. Those Stirling fans who took part in this episode have set a very poor example for our youngsters. It is this type of conduct which the game of hockey neither deserves or wants at any time.

I am sure that the officials of the Stirling Minor Hockey Association, the manager and coach as well as the players of the bantam hockey team, and the many sincere hockey fans of Stirling and district will agree that the conduct of these persons should be publicly condemned, and that a sincere apology be extended to the officials, players and referee of the Marmora Bantam Hockey Club.

Thanking you for the use of your columns to express a personal view, and hoping that Stirling will never again know such exhibitions of poor sportsmanship, I am,

Yours very truly,
Doug Patterson,
O.M.H.A. Executive Member

Three And A Half Million Canadians Own TV Sets

Four out of every five Canadian homes — or a total of 3,500,000 Canadians — now own a TV set, Frank Rasky reports in Liberty Magazine. But, while Canadians used to spend four hours per evening before a TV set, they are now more "selective," and Canadian TV viewing has shrunk to an average of 3.3 hours.

In a survey of 200 TV newspaper writers across Canada, Rasky found that 90 percent praised the "improved" programming of CBC-TV this season.

For the first time, five Canadian shows are among the top 15 programs most popular with Canadian viewers, according to Elliott-Haynes Ratings, Rasky reports. No. 1 is "Cannonball," followed by "N.H.L. Hockey," "Front Page Challenge," "G.M. Presents" and "One of a Kind."

In an interview with Rasky, Joseph Alphonse Quimet, new president of the CBC's 11-member board of directors disagreed with Dr. Andrew Stewart, new president of the CBC's regulatory Board of Broadcast Governors. Dr. Stewart had been asked,

"Do you regard TV as a medium of entertainment or information?" Dr. Stewart replied, "I would say, in the first place, it's factual. And then it's interpretive. And then it's entertainment." Quimet says, "I disagree. We're thoroughly immersed in show business. You can't differentiate between fact, interpretation, and entertainment. All three are intermeshed. Even on an educational series, like "Explorations," you've got to present fact and interpretation in an entertaining way. The great sin is to be dull. To be a good communicator, you've got to be a good showman."

March Enters Like A Lamb -- Will Exit With Lion's Roar

A word to the wise: don't tuck those long woolies away in mothballs just yet. Winter isn't over.

Tradition has it that when March comes in like a gentle lamb it will exit roaring like a lion.

Even if you're not strong on tradition or amateur weather prophets it would be a wise precaution to forget about Easter finery for a while. Keep the fur-lined gloves and the snow shovel handy, too. They'll be needed again.

In an age of exploding atoms and space rockets people are wise to snatch at small pleasures and enjoy them while they may. The first hint that winter is loosing its icy grip is always welcomed in these icebound latitudes.

Particularly by the churl of the manor who has to foot the fuel bill!

United Church Clergy Urge Ottawa Scrap Armed Forces

A group of United Church ministers repudiated the stand of their policy-making general council on national defence Friday and urged the government to scrap the armed forces because they aren't worth the money.

The proposal was made by the powerful board of evangelism and social service, which voted 7 to 4, against strenuous opposition, to recommend that the country's entire resources be thrown into building a stronger peace.

Dr. J. R. Scott Named Director Royal Winter Fair

Dr. J. Russell Scott, President of the Belleville Fair Board, has been accorded a signal honor by the Ontario Fairs Association, which met in convention during the past week in Toronto. He was appointed a director of the Royal Winter Fair as representative of the Association and will assume a heavy responsibility in the direction of that fine fair held each fall in Toronto. The Royal Winter Fair Board asks for a director each year and Dr. Scott was the unanimous choice of the delegates.

Growth Increase Slowed Down

Population growth slowed down in both Canada and the United States in 1958, but the Canadian percentage increase was higher than the American, the Bank of Nova Scotia says.

In 1958 Canadian population increased by 397,000 to 17,284,000, or by 2.34 percent, compared with 3.3 percent in 1957.

In the United States in 1958 population increased by 2,864,000 to 175,602,000 or by 1.66 percent, the lowest rate of growth in 12 years, and compared with a gain of 1.73 percent in 1957.

Canadian births totalled 472,000 compared with 469,000 in 1957, giving a rate per thousand of population of 27.7 compared with 28.3.

United States births totalled 4,249,000 compared with 4,302,000, giving a rate per thousand of 24.4 compared with 25.1.

Immigration into Canada in 1958 fell to 125,000 from 282,000 in 1957.

"The decline in birth rates in 1958," the review says, "followed a marked fall in the marriage rate on both sides of the border in 1957."

"Since marriage rates continued to decline in 1958, a further drop in birth rates might well occur in 1959."

ALWAYS A CONTRIBUTOR

The pulp and paper industry has made its own way against world competition without subsidies, price floors, guarantees, or similar help. In war and peace, it has always been a contributor to the public treasury.

It is estimated that almost two million Canadians serve the Canadian Red Cross in some voluntary capacity.

JAZZ NEWCOMERS

Latest jazz group on the Canadian scene is the Mike White Imperial Jazz Band whose Dixie-land rhythm spans the country each Wednesday night in a live radio broadcast on CBC's Dominion network. Unheard of two years ago, this sextet now has a nightly stand in a downtown hotel in Toronto's Bawin Street, and guests on television jazz shows such as Mute Makers '59.

PROJECT

Last October an exciting event took place on CBC Radio when a new series of one hour programs started. Its planners called it simply—"Project '59".

Its purpose was two-fold—to keep Canadians informed and to do it in an entertaining way. Since its inception Project '59 has won plaudits from both press and public.

CBC radio

Since that first radio program (which explored the world of radio) Project '59 has gone to Gaza to visit Canadian troops—looked in on the revolt in Cuba—talked to Canadians about their leisure time activities—told the story of West Germany—gone to a concert by the famous Red Army choir (especially arranged for CBC's Project '59). It has even featured programs consisting almost entirely of sound!

Project '59 is alert. Recently, an opportunity arose to present a special program on Field Marshal the Viscount Montgomery. Project '59's planners immediately took advantage of the opportunity.

Project '59 is another CBC presentation contributing to the exciting new sound of CBC Radio. Be sure you stay tuned to your local CBC network station.

For full details of the many other exciting things happening on CBC Radio and on CBC Television, may we suggest you subscribe to CBC Times at the special introductory rate of 4 months (16 weekly issues) for $1.00 (yearly rate $3.00). Horticultural Society Hints

For an exotic and all-around flower to grow, look to the tuberous begonia. For the garden with too much shade, there's nothing can equal them. They also have to have an airy location or there is danger of mildew. Ideal planting location is one that faces north-east.

Tubers can be saved from year to year very easily. The double camellia — flowers of which are many colours — is the favourite.

The first step in growing is to purchase good tubers. In the latter part of February or March, spread the tubers out with the hollow side up on trays covered with a thin layer of peat moss or vermiculite. Place them in any convenient room in a light situation (not in direct sunlight) and sprinkle them daily.

Second step is taken when the tubers sprout, plant at once in flats or separate pots filled with a mixture of sand and peat moss. Set each plant one-half inch below the surface. Put in a warm, light place and keep soil mixture uniformly moist.

When shoots reach 3 or 4 inches tall they're ready for potting, or if danger of frost is over, for planting directly outdoors. Proper potting soil is essential. It must be light, loose, absorbent of moisture, but well drained. Good formula: Two-thirds sandy loam, one-third peat and add a tablespoon of bone meal per plant.

In potting up tubers (6 inch pot) cover drainage hole with broken pot or stone, add one half inch of gravel, fill two-thirds full with soil. Set tuber in place, cover about 2 inches deep, firm soil gently with thumbs while revolving pot. The outdoor bed is similar, have bed well worked — only needs to be 6 to 8 inches deep, as begonias are shallow rooted. After setting plants (being careful to have leaves pointing towards you, so the flowers face out, sprinkle a good peat moss mulch around them. Each plant also needs a stake (12 inches); this can be done at planting time or later.

Begonias need plenty of water. This should be done once a day, preferably early in the day. Avoid spraying water on the blooms as this turns them brown. Cultivate beds very lightly, not deeper than an inch. Remove weeds by hand.

Easter Seals Make Camp Life Possible For Crippled Children

Carol is an eleven-year-old, who today has a happy wholesome outlook on life despite the fact that the radium of her young world is confined to the sights seen from a wheel chair. Yet only two years ago, Carol was unhappy, a worry to her parents and potentially a serious loss to society.

When she was four years old, Carol was stricken by poliomyelitis. She survived the disease only to face a life in a wheel chair. Her parents literally smothered her with affection and attention. They failed to realize that this was a course that could have serious results because too much attention could take the form of not permitting Carol to develop her own personality and self-reliance.

By the time she was nine years old, Carol was a problem child, a bright intelligent, but bittered youngster. When officials of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, whose nurses and therapists had aided her, suggested she go to summer camp her parents recoiled at the thought. Her mother at first insisted she should accompany Carol.

Finally Carol went to camp. Her first days were bad, yet within a week she had seen other youngsters far more seriously handicapped than she enjoying life. By the end of the camp term Carol was one of the happy group, had appeared in a play, had learned craft work and was eager to go to school when she got home. Practical applied psychology and worked its wonders.

Easter Seals made camp life possible for Carol, something enjoyed last year by more than 1,200 handicapped Ontario kids who benefitted from the Campaign of the Society and 221 Ontario service clubs to raise funds for the help of crippled children. The campaign this year has an objective of $800,000 and lasts until Easter Sunday, March 29th.

Iron Mine May Be Opened In The Bancroft Area

Frobisher may soon be producing iron ore in the Bancroft area and shipping it by rail to the Hamilton or Buffalo area.

After a serious economic appraisal of such a project, the company has decided to open negotiations for the sale of iron concentrate from its Childs-Rankin property.

Acquired in 1941. Since 1941, when the property was acquired, the Frobisher organization has spent over $600,000 on exploratory work. A total of 61,000 feet of diamond drilling in 140 holes has outlined three iron deposits near the town of Hermon, approximately 15 miles northeast of Bancroft. These deposits are called the Childs, Rankin and the Bessemer, the Northern Miner reports.

Open pit reserves in the Childs and Rankin deposits are estimated at 21,884,727 long tons grading 16.43 per cent magnetic iron. The Bessemer deposit is estimated to contain 2,480,000 long tons, grading 28.62 per cent magnetic iron.

Concentration tests on drill core and a 120-ton bulk sample indicate that a 66 per cent iron concentrate can be obtained at a coarse grind. Recovery runs around 97 per cent and the concentration ratio is 3.94:1.

Preliminary plans call for the production of 350,000 long tons of iron concentrates per year, from a mill that would handle approximately 4,000 tons of iron ore per day. The overall life of the operation, based on the current reserve estimate and the production rate, would be in the neighbourhood of 18 years.

Two Stages. The production plans call for two stages of operation over the 18-year period.

The company plans to ship its concentrates to the Hamilton or Buffalo area, a distance of approximately 240 miles by rail. A CNR spur line from Detlor extends to the property. Detlor is on the CNR line between Bancroft and Trenton.

He was appointed general manager of the Bank of Montreal in 1947 and four years later was named a director, vice-president and general manager and a member of the bank's executive committee. He became president and

Napanee Youth Cited For Bravery

Peter Langford, of Napanee, has been awarded a citation for bravery by the Royal Canadian Humane Association, of Hamilton, Ontario.

While on a picnic with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Miligan and family, Peter saved their hired man, George Strachan, from drowning in Beaver Lake in July, 1955.

Peter had charge of the Red Cross Swimming instruction activities for the Napanee area last July and August.

He now holds all the awards of the Red Cross and Royal Life Saving Society, but at the time of saving Geo. Strachan's life, he held only a Red Cross Senior Swimmer's badge.

The standard cord of hardwood (4x4x8 ft.) produces 60 pounds of ashes compared with 200 to 300 lbs. from a ton of anthracite coal; 13 cords of hardwood equal a ton of anthracite and the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests reports that fuelwood is best utilized in furnaces which take four-foot lengths.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

FARM BRAINS WASTED

This is going to get me in touch with some farmers but I want to tell the story anyhow.

There was a corner of Manitoba where eleven farms were owned by eleven men. Eight of those men were darn good farm operators; two of them got by fairly well; one was in deep trouble.

Each year, the eleven men climbed on eleven tractors and tilled their eleven farms; all did the job well, at the same time, milled over their farm problems and made decisions.

Then one morning Johnson was struck by the fact that here they all were — eight extremely fine brains, two good brains, one poor brain (but a good tractor operator), bouncing around the fields. It was inconceivable that those brains were fully occupied all the time.

So he thought, "Why don't we get together. Eight of us could raise quite a bit of money, two could raise a little, and the eleventh, if we supervised him, could operate an enterprise. He'd have a ten-man Board of Directors meeting once a week, if need be, to direct him — and he could use the fees we'd pay him. Then, when we're all sitting on our bottoms on these tractors, we could be using our brains to solve the problem of the other enterprise."

He called a meeting. They decided that with a certain amount of money they could put up a good pigery on a portion of the farm of the eleventh — they'd lease the land from him, provide management for the pigery, and a small wage for any work he did. He saw it as a way out of his difficulty; and he was smart enough to know that he'd learn a great deal by association with men who were "natural" farmers with experience.

They made plans, visited the bank supervisor in a nearby city. The bank looked over the proposition, okayed the financing. The pigery went into operation, and made a fine profit. The farmers are making more use of that brain power they possess, and now they are considering some additional ventures, perhaps a turkey farm. After all, why not? The extra profits seem to come so easy.

Now, unfortunately, the above story isn't true. I made it up. I know so many farmers with terrific brains operating them on one cylinder only, looking to Ottawa when they could be looking around them and finding answers for themselves.

Or could it be that these things just look easy, when you are sitting behind a typewriter?

Health For Safe Driving Advocated By Conference

That "wild driver" coming at you in traffic may be sick, according to a release from the Canadian Highway Safety Conference.

Frequently, the man at the wheel is upset, drowsy, immature, over-transported, over-cocktail, nervous, or has poor vision. He might be diabetic, or senile. There are so many ways of falling health can pile-up-an-accident record — or a death toll on the highway.

The motorist who ends an argument with his wife by hopping into his car and driving away is one of the worst menaces in traffic. He's angry, bent on vengeance and likely to pour his feelings into the car's accelerator. If he's mad enough he might just take some grim pleasure out of skimming as close as possible to other vehicles to scare the drivers. It is evident that he would be asking for an accident, but it might not occur to him that he also would be asking for a fatal accident.

This driver would be better not driving until he cools off and regains his common sense.

Accidents don't happen. Somebody causes them and one of the frequent reasons is the attitude of the driver. Some motorists become tyrants at the wheel, completely lacking tolerance. Let another motorist or a pedestrian get in their way and tempers flare. This type is immature. Until he grows up, he adds to the perils of traffic.

Neck and neck for "honors" in the traffic accident race are the sleepy and drinking drivers. One is as dangerous as the other. Both cause thousands of accidents each year on Canada's streets and roads. Neither should be driving in the first place. The drowsy driver would be better off taking a nap some place other than at the wheel, for he can kill; but if he must drive, he should rest frequently, drink coffee or a soft drink to help stay awake. If a long trip is coming up, no driver should take a sleeping pill the night before.

Sleepy drivers do not confine their dangers to night driving. Many "fatigue" accidents happen in broad daylight.

The drinking driver is a well-known traffic menace. He doesn't have to be drunk to be dangerous. The familiar "I only had two beers!" is an admission of impairment behind the wheel of a vehicle. Worse is a combination of alcoholic drinks and drugs destined to provide a double-impact threat.

Many drugs can impair a person's ability to drive. Research has shown that such commonly-used drugs as antihistamines, cold tablets and sedatives may dull a motorist's reflexes, cloud judgment and reduce driving skills. A doctor's advice should be sought in such cases.

Vision is a "must" for driving, and even a cold or hayfever can obscure a driver's vision to a dangerous extent. Neurological conditions causing convulsions or other seizures demand a doctor's advice before driving. He will know when it will be safe. He will also provide the best driving advice to a motorist with a heart ailment whose condition could produce deep heartbreak for someone else.

Diabetic patients can drive, but they should do so only when they follow a doctor's advice and take proper care of their condition. Older people require regular check-ups. At ages beyond 65, reflexes and co-ordination become slower, people tire faster and eyesight weakens. Older drivers should travel when traffic is light, preferably in daylight hours and never stay at the wheel for long.

If there is any doubt at all, don't drive until you see your doctor. You may save a life... yours!

USE CANNED FRUITS IN THESE DELICIOUS WINTER DESSERTS

Although canned fruits are delicious just as they come from the can, their usefulness is by no means limited to this method of serving. You can use them in most of the ways you use the fresh fruits in the summertime — in pies, upsidedown cakes, cobblers, jellies, dumplings, shortcakes and other homemade desserts.

These recipes from the Consumer Section, Canada Department of Agriculture will show you some of the ways in which their home economists use canned fruits to bring variety and pleasant eating to wintertime meals.

Winter Fruit Shortcake

Make a rich biscuit shortcake dough, using 2 cups flour. Divide the dough in half and pat out each half to fit an 8-inch layer cake pan. Brush one round of dough with butter and place second round on top. Bake in a very hot oven (425 degs.) for 20 minutes.

Spread the following fruit filling between the layers and serve warm with whipped cream or table cream. (Plain white cake may be used in place of biscuit shortcake, if desired.)

Fruit Filling

Bring fruit syrup to boil. Blend cornstarch and salt with cold water and add slowly to boiling juice. Stir constantly until thickened and clear. Cool. Add drained fruit, blend well and spread between layers of hot shortcake.

GLAMOUR SHORTCAKE

Follow the recipe for Winter Fruit Shortcake but instead of serving with cream, cover the shortcake with a fluffy meringue made from 2 egg whites beaten with 4 tablespoons of sugar and a few grains of salt. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degs.) until meringue is delicately browned, 12 to 15 minutes.

MOULDED FRUIT CREAM

1 tablespoon gelatine
1 cup cold water
1 cup syrup from canned fruit
1 cup sugar
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1 cup canned fruit, diced
1 cup whipping cream, whipped

Soak gelatine in cold water for 5 minutes. Bring fruit syrup to boiling point, add sugar and soaked gelatine. Stir until dissolved. Cool. When mixture is partially set, add lemon juice and diced fruit. Fold in whipped cream and turn into a moistened mould. Chill thoroughly before serving. Six servings.

PLUM BATTER PUDDING

Drain a 20-ounce can of plums, reserving juice for the sauce. In a lightly greased, medium-size casserole, melt 2 tablespoons of butter and stir in 1-3 cup brown sugar. Cut plums in half, remove stones and arrange plum halves on the melted butter and sugar.

Make a white cake batter from your own recipe (or use a "mix") and pour batter over plums. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degs.) until cake is cooled, about 40 minutes. Remove from oven and let stand 2 or 3 minutes, then invert onto a serving plate. Serve with plum sauce made from the juice. Six to eight servings.

Plum Sauce
In a saucepan combine 1 tablespoon cornstarch with 2 tablespoons sugar and a dash of cinnamon, nutmeg or ground cloves. Gradually stir in the plum juice (about 1 cup). Heat and stir until sauce is thickened and clear, then cook gently for 3 minutes more. Remove from heat and stir in 1 tablespoon each of lemon juice and butter. Serve hot.

CONSERVATION NEWS

LOGGING OPERATIONS

A general feeling of quiet optimism seems to be the order of the day in most parts of the Tweed District as logging activities reach a mid-winter peak. Companies which a year ago were burdened with excessively large lumber inventories report that the past summer and fall saw a considerable reduction in stocks, and shipments are continuing at a slow but steady pace throughout the winter months. The volume of timber being cut in the district reflects the improved market conditions as most companies are engaged in operations to the limit of their allowable cut.

The Department employs a large staff of scalers in this district, 25 to be exact, whose responsibility it is to measure all timber which is cut to determine the proper volume for the assessment of Crown stumpage charges. They also thoroughly inspect the various operations to ensure that all regulations of the Department are being followed. They are assisted in this work through periodic visits made to the operations by the Chief Rangers and district office Timber staff.

An interesting side-light to the general conditions of operating in this area is the place which the "day gang" takes in the logging job. In recent years in the logging industry various factors have combined to produce a system of operating wherein the bulk of the timber is cut by "piece-workers" who are paid at a rate based on the number of units of production, be it cords, logs or thousand board feet, which the individual produces in a day. The "day gang", consisting of men who are paid at a set rate per day, has been generally only sparingly used to carry out jobs which are unprofitable for, or do not lend themselves to, the operations of the "piece worker." However, it is interesting to note that some companies in this area operate almost exclusively through the use of "day gangs" to the apparent complete satisfaction of all concerned. These crews are expected to produce a certain minimum quantity of logs per day and it becomes a matter of pride to the men to see that this log count is attained. It is a common practice to keep a "bank", which is a quantity of logs for which the count has not been turned in on more successful days, from which logs may be "borrowed" to make up the count on less fortunate days. In days gone by the daily "log count" together with the "brag loads" of the sleigh haul kept life from getting too dull in many a camp.

What Others Say

THE AVRO ARROW

(The Letter Review)

Stature of Prime Minister Diefenbaker has been increased immeasurably by his courageous action in the matter of the Avro Arrow. To him and to him alone must go the credit for having dealt with a problem that could have put the nation into bankruptcy.

There were those who were inclined to classify Mr. Diefenbaker simply as a politician who viewed his responsibility only in the light of votes to be counted today or three years from now. Continuing the Arrow program at Malton, Ontario, would have been sheer boondoggling. Boondoggling should have no place in such a country as Canada, where there is so much really useful work to be done. Boondoggling certainly has no place in a defence programme.

Mr. Diefenbaker also has demonstrated that he is his own master. To those who place the welfare of the shareholders of the A. V. Roe Company ahead of public interest, he has demonstrated an independence that should stand him in good stead when next the voters of Canada are asked for a verdict on his administration.

There has been absurdly childish and emotional talk to the effect that the Avro Arrow's demise was the end of Canadian aviation. And that the necessity for 13,000 or 14,000 people's seeking new jobs is a comparable problem to that of national survival.

The Malton, Ontario, company, which has been spending so many hundreds of millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money, does not come out of this episode with much credit. Although it has been asserted that the company conducted no propaganda campaign to further the Arrow project, the summary dismissal of all the company's employees on an hour's notice hardly could be construed other than as an effort to force the Government's hand.

Most absurd of all claims is that the final announcement by the Government came to the company as a stunning blow, a complete surprise. It could have been a surprise only to a person who had so little respect for the Prime Minister that he felt that the Prime Minister would not have the nerve to cancel the project. Otherwise the cancellation could have been no more surprising than would be a heavy rainstorm after a prolonged period of extensive cloud.

It is regrettable that the immediate economic future of many individuals is clouded by their peremptory dismissal by the company, but thousands, even millions, of other people have been dismissed from their employment from time to time, and thousands, and millions, usually find other work, perhaps even better jobs than they had before.

WONDERS OF NATURE

(Oshawa Times-Gazette)

Exploration of the wonderful world of the outdoors is always an exciting adventure, be it through observation of insects on the front lawn and backyard garden or study of the habits of animals and fish in great forests and running rivers. If is more than adventure, however. Knowledge of the ways of nature is necessary if man is to come to terms with his environment. Knowledge of nature is the key to the problem of conservation of natural resources, and conservation is one of the necessities of life.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

SOIL CONSERVATION THROUGH BALANCED LAND USE

Do you know that you can raise every acre of your farm according to its needs for conservation and balanced land use?

An understanding of the problems of the soil on any farm will determine the practices that are required to use the land most efficiently. These measures might include one or a combination of two or more of the following: Maintenance of soil fertility, improved land drainage, strip cropping, contour farming, grassed waterways, suitable rotations, weed control, and other land use practices. A balanced land use programme built around sound conservation measures will increase your crop production and farm income.

The improvement of soil fertility is of particular importance in the success of a farm plan. A definite plan of cropping, to include the frequent use of legume crops, the return of plant nutrients through the careful handling of manure, and the use of suitable fertilizers as indicated by soil tests should be followed.

Fully aware of the need for soil and water conservation in Ontario, the Ontario Department of Agriculture offers advisory service based on the importance of soil fertility, drainage, improvement, and erosion control. If you are an Ontario farmer with problems in soil management and land use, the advisory service is available to you through the Agricultural Representative Service and the Ontario Agricultural College.

FORAGE SEED COMMITTEE

Representatives from all participating provinces and agencies except the Maritimes and British Columbia attended the eighth annual meeting at the Canadian Forage Seeds Project's Co-ordinating Committee at Ottawa.

Function of the Project is to stimulate production and encourage the use of improved varieties of forage crops. Canada Department of Agriculture underwrites contracts for the growing of Foundation stock seed to the approved registered class by growers selected by the Provincial Departments of Agriculture. It is the responsibility of the co-ordinating committee to allocate the seed produced under contract to the participating provinces for further multiplication to the certified level for general forage use.

To date emphasis has been placed on multiplying Climax timothy, Lasalle red clover, Rambler and Vernal alfalfa, Cumino and Erector sweet clover and Summit crested wheatgrass.

The 1958 season was not very satisfactory for the production of forage seeds, but more than 17,000 pounds of approved registered Climax timothy seed were produced under contract with lesser quantities of the other varieties. This seed was readily taken up by the provinces for distribution. Further supplies of foundation seed of Climax timothy Lasalle red clover, Rambler and Vernal alfalfa and Summit crested wheatgrass were allocated and plans made to contract acreage believed necessary to meet production goals of the Project.

Efforts of the Project to stimulate production of improved varieties of forage seeds have met with marked success with regard to Climax timothy. Since 1952, when the Project went into operation, inspected acreage of this variety has increased from 170 to over 10,000 and production has increased from about 30,000 pounds to over 1,000,000 pounds of pedigreed seed in 1958.

CHECK HORSES' HEALTH DURING WINTER MONTHS

Although the horse as a work animal has almost passed out of the picture, there are still many horses being kept for pets, riding, showing and for odd jobs around the farm. March is a good month to give a horse some of the maintenance that it requires from time to time, says the Ontario Veterinary College. Frequently, after a winter of idleness or light exercise horses' feet require careful inspection and proper trimming. It is also a good time of year to have the teeth looked at and the rough edges taken off.

If the horse has not already been treated for "Bots" this is a good time to do it. The bot larvae, which have been present in the horse's stomach during the winter become more active as spring approaches and begin their travels through the rest of the digestive system. As they become active and begin their migration they frequently are a cause of colic in the horse. Recently the treatments for bots and for the internal parasites of the horse have been very much improved. Such treatments should be administered only on the recommendation of a veterinarian. One treatment, when properly administered is usually sufficient to control all the common internal parasites of the horse.

Today nothing seems to succeed like the appearance of success.

PLANNING A PASTURE PROGRAMME

It is not too early to plan now for the pasture programme for a dairy farm this year, states D. N. Parks, Field Crops Division, Kemptville Agricultural School. What are some of the factors that should be considered?

Taking advantage of several types of pasture will make it possible to lengthen the grazing season, take care of the mid-summer slump in production, and allow the improved pasture fields to rest, preventing their deterioration from over-grazing.

The basic factors in pasture planning are the pasture requirements of the herd and the capabilities of the soil.

One of the first considerations in planning a pasture programme is to take care of the mid-summer slump in pasture production. If this is not provided for, a drop in milk production will be the result.

The best sources of summer pasture are seeded or long-term pasture, supplementary pasture (usually Sudan grass and oats), and aftermath from a hay-pasture mixture. The main point is: do not rely on any one source of pasture, but rather use several types of pasture. A hay meadow will produce more pasture, either as aftermath or as straight grazing, if it contains some orchard grass and ladino clover, where they are adapted. Birdsfoot trefoil on the low fields will retain its feeding value longer and can be saved until July for grazing. Sudan grass and oats may also be used to good advantage. The main source of pasture should come from at least half an acre per cow of highly fertilized, well managed, long-term pasture.

One of the best crops for lengthening the grazing season is fall rye seeded during early August at the rate of two bushels an acre. This should give at least a week's pasture in the fall and about two weeks' pasture in the early spring. A large acreage of rye is not necessary; one acre for every four cows is sufficient, if the soil is rich and fertilizer is generously applied.

Two and a half acres of good sod should provide the hay and pasture requirements for one cow and her normal replacements for one year. On many farms of average fertility nearly three and a half acres of sod per cow will be required. Better soil management, including the addition of fertilizer, will reduce this figure.

Complete information on pastures is contained in "Field Crop Recommendations for 1959" obtainable at the office of the County Agricultural Representative.

Sells 2,000,000 Hogs A Year

The Ontario Hog Producers Co-Operative is selling 2,000,000 hogs a year at an approximate value of $100 million, and as J. R. Kohler, sales manager, points out, that volume of business calls for a top flight selling organization.

The annual meeting of the producer association will be held March 16th and 17th at the King Edward Hotel, Toronto, with 400 producers expected. President Chas. W. McInnis will address the luncheon Monday, March 16th as the keynote speaker of the meeting.

In joint session with the association will be the Ontario Hog Producers Marketing Board and Co-Operative, the former being the selling agency for approximately 50,000 producers in the province.

World Hockey Final To Be Heard On CBC Radio

CBC radio's Trans-Canada network will carry a "live" play-by-play description of the world hockey final, Sunday, March 15th.

Veteran hockey commentator Foster Hewitt and Tom Benson of CBC outside broadcasts will be in Prague, Czechoslovakia, to bring listeners a colourful account of this annual tournament.

Starting time for the hockey final which is expected to find Canada playing Russia, has not been determined as yet.

Broadcast arrangements were made by the CBC in co-operation with the European Broadcasting Union. Transmission by land line will be made from Prague to London, England, and then via the Atlantic cable to Canada.

Immediately prior to the broadcast of the game there will be a special 15-minute world hockey review. Hewitt and Benson will give a run-down on the tournament and conduct interviews with the players.

Bylaw No. 593 Covering $5,000 Expenditure on Village Streets

District Engineer M. Gibson
Addresses Council —
Add Three Street Lights

Bylaw No. 593 covering $5,000 expenditure on maintenance of village streets in 1959 was given its several readings and passed by Village Council at the regular meeting on Monday night. Owing to the construction of the sewerage system no allowance was made for new road construction. Reeve K. Ray presided and Councillors W. J. Morton, C. Bateman and H. R. Tompkins were in attendance.

Michael Gibson, resident engineer on the sewerage system, was present and suggested Council appoint a committee to interview each property holder relative to choice of position of tile connection at the property line. It was usual practice to place a "Y" connection to two houses at intersection of street line and lot line between the houses, stated Mr. Gibson.

He also suggested that Council pass a bylaw regarding the installation of house connections. When installing his sewer connection the householder shall use 5" diameter vitrified clay pipe joined by rubber sleeves. Pipe shall be laid in a straight line. No householder may commence discharging sewage through the new pipe until so authorized by the Council.

The Clerk was instructed to prepare the necessary bylaw, which will be passed at a later meeting. Chief Constable Sutherland gave his report which was received and adopted. He also requested Council to give consideration to an increase in pay in keeping with the other municipalities in the district.

Clerk Mallory tabled correspondence from Villages of Southampton and Dundalk relative to the installation of sewerage systems; from Salvation Army, re grant; Dept. of Planning and Development, re industrial development; Hisey & Barrington; Magistrate R. C. Jackson, relative to the establishment of court in Stirling; Bell Telephone Co., giving $19819.90 as its assessment for business taxes; Attorney-General's Department, designating Stirling as a municipality to be policed by its own department, under provisions of the Police Act; and the Red Cross Society, re donation.

J. Irish waited on Council seeking permission for the use of the theatre on Thursday night for the showing of a film of the World's Scout Jamboree. The request was granted.

The matter of insurance on the community building and the comprehensive policy covering the village was discussed. On motion it was decided to pay the premium of $230.00 in the Comprehensive Policy and to investigate having the insurance on the Community Building paid in yearly instalments.

Councillor Bateman, Chairman of Cemetery Committee, stated he had a request from L. Floud regarding the caretaking of the Victoria Street Park. On motion it was decided to have Mr. Floud do the work at a fee of $60.00.

On motion of Councillors Morton and Bateman Council will make application for subsidy on street expenditures of $6,279.92 in 1958.

Clerk Mallory presented a breakdown of police costs in 1958, showing a total expenditure of $4882.82. This amount is made up of the following:

Chief Sutherland, salary $2,500, plus car allowance of $350.00 and other expenses including mileage, etc., $806.18; supplies, including uniforms, gun, etc., $480.42; car insurance, $120.00; telephone, $120.47; S. Eggleton, $300.00; D. Tucker, $193.70; R. Frost, $12.00.

The matter of street lighting was discussed and the Clerk was instructed to advise the Stirling Public Utilities to have a light placed on Baker St. opposite the residence of G. Tanner and two on Front St. E. and Belleville Road at Elaine Footwear.

The following accounts were passed for payment:

McIntosh & Wells, $5.00; Audrey Elliott, $27.00; F. R. Mallory, $7.31; Chas. F. Davidson, $155.80; Chas. Davidson, $20.00; Ross Percival, $20.00; County of Hastings, $80.90; Chief Sutherland, $55.60; Wm. Long, $9.00; H. E. Cooke, $16.00; Stirling Motor Sales, $1150.00; H. E. Cooke, $65.00; C. E. St. Paul's Woman's Missionary Society Enjoys Easter Luncheon

Mrs. H. M. Davis, Christian Stewardship Sec. of Belleville Presbyterian, Speaker

From the first notes of quiet music provided by Mrs. Russell Stapley to the closing benediction, the Easter theme prevailed as St. Paul's W.M.S. convened for their regular meeting on Tuesday of this week in the Church parlours.

The Stewardship group composed of Mrs. A. Packman, Mrs. C. Macklin, Mrs. R. B. Duffin, Mrs. E. Post and Mrs. W. T. Elliott, assisted by a few volunteers, was hostess for a 1 o'clock luncheon. The tables, gallily decorated with daffodils, heralded the approach of Spring and the delicious food prepared the body for a deeper satisfaction of good things available in the Lenten season.

Mrs. Packman, President, read a poem relating to Easter. Suitable hymns were sung and Mrs. Elliott, convener, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. H. M. Davis, Christian Stewardship Secretary for Belleville Presbyterian, who chose for her subject, "The Master's Call and Our Response." Her message was very inspiring as she emphasized the part of the individual in interpreting the stewardship of time, life and the gospel. Mrs. E. Eggleton expressed the courtesies of the day and presented Mrs. Davis with a gift in appreciation of her effort for such a special occasion. Mrs. Wm. Wilkins sang "Glorious Easter Day" with Mrs. Harold West as accompanist.

A unique feature of the meeting was the presentation of a nosegay of paper money by Mrs. R. Stapley to the President and thence to the Stewardship Secretary in gratitude to God for the gift of 70 years of life. Birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. Stapley and sincere thanks expressed for this mark of generosity.

Mrs. W. C. Brown directed a short period of meditation on "the Meaning of Easter." She was ably assisted by Mrs. E. Post and Mrs. G. Carlisle.

Routine matters of business were dealt with and Mrs. M. Bell, Supply Secretary, announced an all day quilting with box lunch for Thursday, March 19th.

General comments encouraged the sponsoring group to promote another such opportunity for good fellowship and renewed inspiration.

Objective of $500 Set For District By Local Red Cross Committee

Mrs. A. Brooks, Chairman of Local Appeal — To Hold
House To House Canvas

Nineteen hundred and fifty-nine marks the 50th anniversary of the Canadian Red Cross and its annual appeal for financial assistance is now in progress. Citizens of Stirling are asked to help in donations to this worthy cause.

Next week a canvas of the Village will be carried out and those in charge would appreciate citizens having their donations ready when the canvassers call. You will appreciate that the canvassers are all busy and are giving of their time free in order that this canvass may be a success. The need each year grows greater and if each person will do his or her share our objective can be reached.

Mrs. Ashley Brooks, 128 Henry St., is the chairman of the local campaign and hopes to complete the campaign within two weeks.

Work of Mercy
Never Ends

The local drive is a part of the Red Cross national campaign. "The work of mercy never ends" and citizens of Stirling and district are urged to give generously to this worthy cause.

Your Red Cross deals in maximums and minimums. It wants to do the most work it possibly can, in the pursuit of the humanitarian ideal that was its founding principle.

It asks each year for the absolutely minimum amount of money to carry out this work.

With this money, your Red Cross provides all Canadians with essential humanitarian services. Through International Relief — is an opportunity for Canadians, through their Red Cross Society, to extend the hand of mercy to all their fellow men, regardless of race, creed, color or geographical boundaries.

Every day, all over the world, someone says "thank you" — to your Red Cross, to you, for the unflinching hand of mercy that reaches out to wherever help is most needed.

Every day, too, a fellow-Canadian says "thank you" for the help you have offered through your Red Cross.

About forty members of the Stirling Horticultural Society met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Armstrong on Monday evening for the regular meeting.

The President welcomed all present and introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Drinkwater, science teacher from the Madoc High School. Mr. Drinkwater is a very enthusiastic horticulturalist.

A very interesting film from the A.O.C., Guelph, was shown, demonstrating home landscaping — the right and wrong way of planting evergreens and shrubs around the house and lawn. Slides were also shown of some very beautiful homes, both new and old, in and around the Madoc area. Mr. Drinkwater pointed out where improvements could be made. Some public buildings showed where a great deal could be done to improve the surroundings.

Mrs. A. Gordanier Hostess To March Meeting of W.I.

The March meeting of the Stirling Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Gordanier with a good attendance. The meeting opened with the singing of the Ode and all repeated the Lord's Prayer.

Roll call was answered by a house-cleaning hint. A letter was read from Mrs. Phillips. Plans were made to quilt another quilt. Two quilts were sent to Frankford to a burnt-out family. A trip was also discussed.

The Mary Stewart Collect was repeated, after which the meeting was turned over to the programme convener, Mrs. Foster. Readings were given by Mrs. S. McMurray and Mrs. Foster. "The Maple Leaf" was sung, after which Mrs. Foster called on the guest speaker from Pine Grove Institute, Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. Ross gave a paper on "Healthful Country Living." For long life get more rest and warmth, more relaxation as you grow older, and for a fuller life worry less, eat less and work less. To this we add keep alert, keep happy, keep active. The Chinese live with out rich food. A missionary doctor said the Chinese seldom die from hardening of the arteries or gall bladder troubles or heart attacks, as they eat rice and more fish food. Sea salt has been found very valuable. Garden vegetable have great value.

Doctors have found wonder drugs must be used in discretion even when antibiotics are used. Fluids are still a necessity. Without water we would perish from dehydration in a few days.

At this point Mrs. Detlor gave a paper on "Education." A Canadian's birth-right is education. In our changing world there is a demand in every walk of life for a higher education. One is never too old to learn although we are satisfied with what we do know. We pride ourselves in this country on our high standard of living. We have money for all amusements. Each Province has its own educational system.

Mrs. Foster thanked the speakers for giving such splendid papers. The meeting closed with the singing of the National Anthem. A lovely lunch was served by the hostess, Mrs. Gordanier and Mrs. Wickert. Mrs. W. C. West moved a vote of thanks to everyone that had helped in any way with the meeting.

Ontario Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary March Meeting

The March meeting of the Ontario Diocesan Woman's Auxiliary was planned entirely around the Revision of the Constitution. It was held in the newly-decorated hall of St. John's, Portsmouth. On the tea table was a bright springtime bouquet, the delightful gift of a non-member. Canon Swan led in prayers for blessing on the day's deliberations and offered a special prayer for sick members. The visitors' book showed representatives present from branches in Prescott, Newburgh, Arden, Gananoque, Cataract and Trenton. Miss Winifred Burns was in the chair.

Mrs. K. C. Evans, Convener of the Committee on Revision, dealt with the need for an expanded Diocesan Constitution to meet the needs of an expanding church. It has been found necessary to add new clauses. She felt that growth in the work of the W.A. must be met by growth in membership, and she asked her hearers to remember that all church women are potential W.A. members.

Mrs. M. C. Tillotson read both the diocesan and parochial revisions item by item, pointing out changes and additions and the reason for these. The meeting was asked to submit questions and suggestions in writing and to put them in the Question Box at the April meeting.

The Announcement was made of the passing in British Columbia of Mrs. Carey, a Life Member and wife of St. Archdeacon Carey, formerly of St. Paul's Church, Kingston. Two new branches were welcomed, one at Glen Miller and the other on the Mohawk Reserve in Tyendinaga. The Junior Auxiliary Rally and the Conference of Little Helpers Secretaries will both be held on April 2nd in St. George's Hall, Kingston. The Girl's Auxiliary Festival will be held in the Hall on April 18th. The Diocesan Annual will be held April 21st to 23rd in Trinity Parish Hall, Brockville. DEADLINE TO GET 1959 CAR PLATES IS MARCH 18th

Ontario motorists are reminded by the Department of Transport that 1958 drivers' licences and vehicle permits expire at midnight on March 18. After that date it will be illegal to drive with 1958 licence or plates. Motorists are therefore requested to obtain their new licences or permits before the deadline, and avoid a last minute rush which might cause delay at 250 Agency Offices throughout the Province.

The Transport Department also points out that applicants must show proof of Liability Insurance when applying for plates, failing which they have to pay an extra $5.00 into the Unsatisfied Judgment Fund. This additional payment is not a substitute for Liability Insurance. Policies for Fire, Theft and Collision are not Liability Insurance.

St. Paul's Notes

(By Rev. A. Packman)

The ladies of St. Paul's W.A. have added to the equipment they provided some months ago when steel shelves and a handsome desk with swivel chair was bought for the minister's office. Last week they invested in a typewriter — a most excellent machine, modern in every respect.

Horticultural Society Hints

One of the most interesting parts of gardening is propagation. It is a never-failing source of wonder to the thinking person what can be accomplished with a few seeds. It is not only interesting but profitable for the amateur to raise annuals, perennials and biennials.

Buy seeds from reputable seedman. Sowing seeds indoors early in the spring we are able to gain from 4 to 6 weeks over those sown outdoors. Almost any sort of receptacle will do for starting the plants. First put several pieces of broken pot over drainage holes, then layer of coarse gravel or small clinders then a thin layer of peat moss, and add the carefully prepared soil in which to plant the seed. If you do not have good soil, buy a bushel from your florist. It should be screened through one-quarter inch wire and firmed down into the pot until it is about one inch from the top. Water now thoroughly by setting container in a pan of water. When dampness shows on the surface of the soil, set it aside for an hour or two until surface has dried somewhat, then the seeds may be planted in rows or broadcast — then label. Fine soil is then sifted over the seeds. Many of the finer seeds may be pressed into the soil and not covered at all except with a sheet of newspaper to keep them from drying out.

As soon as a fair number of seedlings appear, remove paper and place the container in light out of direct rays of the sun, about 70 degrees when germinating; 50 to 60 degrees thereafter. This lower temperature makes plants more stocky and vigorous. Watering now must be done carefully. Water at room temperature, soil must never dry out nor be too wet. Best watering is in the morning. When big enough, transplant to bigger container.

St. John's Evening Guild

The St. John's Evening Guild met at the home of Mrs. George Noble on Monday evening with an attendance of twelve.

The President, Mrs. E. C. Hay-Elis, opened the meeting with the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Wm. Sutherland gave the Treasurer's report.

It was decided that at each meeting a ten minute period would be spent learning of the work of the Altar Guild. Mrs. G. Green read a portion from one of the books telling of the work of the Altar Guild. This proved very interesting to all.

The next meeting will be held Monday evening, April 13th at the home of Mrs. D. Ackers.

Plans were discussed concerning lunch for the Organization of Anglican Churchmen and breakfast for the members of the A.Y.P.A. Conference members. On motion of Mrs. Bruce Bell and Mrs. W. Sutherland, a donation of $50.00 is to be made to purchase new Prayer Books for the Church. Rev. R. Gale closed this part of the meeting with prayer.

Rev. Gale spoke on how and why we should spend more time with God; especially during the Season of Lent. The members enjoyed his talk.

Following a delicious lunch, Mrs.

B. Bell moved a vote of thanks to the hostess, programme and lunch committees; also to Rev. Gale for his interesting talk.

Guide News

The 1st Stirling Girl Guides held four regular meetings in January. Early in the month some new patrol leaders and seconders were appointed and the patrols were reorganized. Rosalyn Rodgers became the new secretary. Susan Webber and Barbara Chambers are the new colour party. On January 26th the Badge Secretary, Mrs. Robert Hutton, presented four badges.

The first February meeting was held outdoors at the home of Capt. Cornett. A bonfire which some Guides had prepared on the previous Saturday was lighted as the Guides sang "Fire's Burning." The girls presented skits, sang songs, and enjoyed hot dogs and roasted marshmallows around the campfire.

On February 11th the Guides were the guests of the Stirling Boy Scouts at a skating party at the Stirling Arena. The Stirling Legion provided free hot chocolate.

The Stirling Girl Guides attended the church service at St. Paul's United Church on February 22nd, which was Thinking Day, the joint birthdays of the founder, the Lord Baden-Powell of Gilwell and the Lady Baden-Powell.

On Monday evening, February 23rd, the 1st Stirling Girl Guides met in the Stirling Community Hall with the Stirling Boy Scouts and their leaders as guests. About fifty Guides and Scouts and eight leaders were present. Rosalyn Rodgers on behalf of the Guides welcomed the guests. Mrs. Robert Hutton read a short account of thinking Day and its meaning emphasizing international friendship. Mrs. Robert Luery read the names of thirty-seven countries where there are Girl Guides and each girl deposited a penny in a world bank. David Murray read a story about the life of Lord Baden-Powell and Thelma Stewart read a poem on the birth of Scouting. Games and songs were enjoyed, followed by a lunch of cakes and doughnuts. The meeting closed with taps with Bob Bell playing the trumpet.

Afternoon Tea

On Wednesday, February 25th, the Guides held a most successful afternoon tea and bake sale, under the direction of Capt. Cornett and Lieut. Cain. The Stirling Community Hall was nicely decorated in the Guide colours of blue and gold.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Blake Faulkner, President of the Stirling Girl Guide Association; Mrs. Robert Hutton, Badge Secretary, and Mrs. Bruce Bell, Secretary of the Local Association.

The Guides served a dainty lunch to a large number of ladies. Members of the Girl Guide Association assisted in the kitchen.

The bake table held a variety of baking which was supplied by the Guide mothers. The Girl Guides wish to thank everyone who sent baking and helped in any way to make this event a success.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

Forty-nine million increase in world population in 1958. China population increased by thirteen million.

This rapid increase of world population presents the old and experienced organization, the Bible Society, with the ever increasing problem of supplying Bibles and Scripture Portions to a world in which more people are being born every minute and more people are learning to read every hour than at any time in its history. It is the basic task of The Society that God's Word is preserved in the hearts and lives of people through Bible reading the world over.

Very Interesting Review of Historic Events Given By Judge G. F. Smith

Many of those attending the bi-monthly meeting of the Bay of Quinte Branch, United Empire Loyalist Association at Napanee on Thursday evening, March 5th, acclaimed the address given by Judge Gerald F. Smith as one of the most interesting it had been their good fortune to hear.

Born in Ernestown Township, near Bath, the Judge literally and actually grew up on the history of the United Empire Loyalist settlers of the old Midland district. In addition to enjoying this wonderful background, he has had the privilege of acquiring more valuable data through his association with, and as President of the Lennox and Addington Historical Society for the past several years.

He very truly mentioned he should be eligible for U.E.L. membership, whether some of his ancestors registered or not. Many other descendants of this district are in like position.

Four applications for membership were given unanimous approval by vote of membership; two being presented were extended a warm welcome.

Report of the nominating committee was received and approved, for presentation to the annual meeting on May 6th for election of one new Vice-President.

A suggestion made at the recent executive meeting that two or three clauses in the by-laws should be amended, was discussed and given approval of the meeting; said amendments to be finally voted upon at the May 6th meeting.

An Anniversary Programme committee of six was proposed and approved, to formulate plans for a fitting programme of observance of the 175th anniversary of the landing of Loyalists at Adolphustown in June 1784. The committee will be chaired by Captain Jack Rogers, of Picton, who already is chairman of the Historical Committee of the Branch.

A most pleasing social period followed the business session, during which the ladies served tea and coffee with delicious sandwiches. This period provided the opportunity to meet and become better acquainted with some seldom seen members.

The next meeting of the Branch will be on May 6th in the Township Hall at Adolphustown. A large turnout is hoped for, as it will be the third annual meeting.

People who like to be waited on are the hardest ones to be cured of their ailments.

How to cut a FANCY figure ...without spending one!

The way to cut a fancy figure without spending one is to drop into your neighbourhood Ford Dealer and ask him to show you his Custom 300 Tudor Sedan with a Six engine. It's the lowest-priced of all Fords—in fact the lowest-priced car in its class.*

Ford also gives you a whole series of standard features that would cost you $87.25 extra in a directly competitive model (which costs more to begin with). Examples? Foam cushioning in the front seat, extra body insulation, 66-plate battery, aluminum muffler that lasts up to twice as long... just to mention a few.

Sounds good? It is good. Drop into your nearest Ford Dealer's and see for yourself.

*According to recent comparisons of manufacturers' suggested retail prices.

The Custom 300 Tudor is as economical to run as it is to buy. For example, with a Milenco Maker Six engine you get up to 24 miles per gallon of regular gas.

Ford gives you a choice of 18 models in 6 series, that start with the low-priced Custom 300 and include the Fairlane, Fairlane 500, Galaxie and Station Wagons. Six or V-8 available in all models.

(Certain features illustrated or mentioned are "Standard" on some models, optional at extra cost on others.)

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hillis)

SO NOW I'M A REACTIONARY?

Well, now I have been called every thing!

An irate reader sends this nice note, "Mr. Hillis, you are an incurable reactionary, with your ranting about free-enterprise and your constant criticism of the government and government agencies. Don't you know that you are as old-fashioned as a bowler hat? Like free-enterprise itself, you are dead but you won't lie down."

Well, I sure do believe in free-enterprise, and I think the government has gotten itself involved in too many things; but is this reactionary? Is free-enterprise old-fashioned.

Ah, no, my irate friend! Freedom is a new idea. Remember when Ma and Pa chose daughter's hubby for her? Remember when the peasants scrambled from the road when the Lord drove by? Remember the old experiments in Socialism, Serfdom, Absolute Monarchy?

The new thing is Freedom — of religion, of the ballot, and of enterprise. The old thing is the notion that a few should plan for the many; the new thing is that the government should be responsible to the people, as servants and not as masters.

Sure, there are lots of things wrong in the country. Don't blame that on free-enterprise. There are lots of things wrong in Socialist Russia. Socialist Britain was far from perfect, and Socialist France was no Utopia.

The old idea that a group of "experts" can do better at running our lives than we can do for ourselves keeps cropping up from time to time — an old-fashioned idea that we free people on this free continent have proved to be no good for us at all.

Free-enterprise is not as popular as it ought to be. Too many of us take freedom for granted. We let it go for some immediate gain — and in the long run we lose by it. Free-enterprise ought to be popular. It works. It is new and dynamic and challenging. Left-wingers want us to sneer at the words "Free-Enterprise." I won't sneer at them!

Well, if thinking this makes me a "reactionary," let it be so. I'd hate to think how I'd feel if I lived in one of those "modern" countries where criticism is simply not allowed on the government runs everything and pain of death or Siberia!

"Wake Up And Read" Campaign

Canadians — who rank near the bottom in the world in their amount of reading — have become the target in an unprecedented national campaign to stimulate more active reading.

Supported by people ranging from Prime Minister Diefenbaker to interested volunteers across Canada, the campaign is designated to snap Canadians out of lethargic reading habits. The theme "Wake Up and Read" will be promoted by citizens' committees in hundreds of Canadian communities until the campaign culminates in Canadian Library Week, April 12th to 18th.

Its sponsoring group — librarians, publishers and other interested parties formed into a Canadian Library Week Council — point out that almost 40 per cent of the Canadian population is not served by a public library, according to the latest government survey. Of the 61 per cent within a library's area, the rate of book borrowing is a lowly 3.4 volume a year on the average.

Similarly, with one book store to every 18,125 people, Canada ranks fourteenth among the world's nations in book shops per capita. By way of comparison, Austria has a book store for every 2,754 people.

Furthermore, the most recent Gallup Poll on reading habits showed that 32 per cent of those surveyed had not read a book in a full year or more.

"This is a shocking record" says Canadian Library Week Council Chairman Dr. J. R. Kidd, National Director of the Canadian Association for Adult Education. "Sir William Osler used to say that 'money invested in a library gives much better returns than mining stock.' But it is pretty clear where Canadians put all their investments. A famous editor once wrote that 'Canada has the money, but would rather spend it on whiskey than on books.' Naturally we know Canadians must spend money on other things than books and libraries, but our aim is to improve the lamentable situation of reading in Canada with an active 'Wake Up and Read Campaign.'"

THE LEADING PRODUCER

In the value of its production the pulp and paper industry has headed the list of Canadian peace-time manufacturing industries for a quarter of a century.

Pulp and paper is Canada's leading enterprise and exporter.

The Good Driver

A necessary skill for the good driver is the ability to make accurate right-hand turns in a confined space. It takes about thirty seconds' instruction from a qualified teacher to learn how to do this with precision. But most new motorists put in years of trial-and-error practice before they acquire any sort of proficiency at the manoeuvre. Scratched sides and dented fenders give evidence of the times they nearly got it right. And however much they practice, that acute turn in a tight corner is always an anxious moment.

The informed, and relaxed way of doing the job is to make sure the car is at least six inches from the corner, or other obstacle round which it has to turn. Then continue past the obstacle until it is visible behind the centre post of the car. That is, behind the upright that divides front and rear windows on the right hand side of the car. Then wheel to the right as hard as can be . . . it is impossible to scrape the car against the corner.

Let's repeat that, for emphasis. Imagine driving down a very narrow lane and having to make a right hand turn into another narrow lane. Keep six inches from the wall on your right. Wait until you can see the corner of the wall at the intersection behind the centre post of the car. Spin the steering wheel to give maximum right turn. You will slide around the corner with your right rear fender missing it by four or six inches.

This is one of the short cuts to skill developed as the result of scientific study into every aspect of correct driving. Research in driver education has been going on for 25 years at the university level. The results are on offer at every high school giving Driver Education courses (only 23 in Ontario, regrettably). And on many excellent books on good driving.

This learning is available to materially reduce the accident-expectancy of every driver who cares to take and use it. But the would-be driver is seldom interested in learning to drive well. He only wants to learn enough to get his licence as quickly as possible. He is content to buy his higher education at the wheel through experience. And to pay for it through repairs arising from unnecessary scratches, dents and collisions. And sometimes to pay in blood, and life-long remorse.

JOB MAKERS

CANADIAN manufacturing in each month of 1958 provided employment for an average of 1,146,156 Canadian men and women. This represented nearly 43 per cent of all non-agricultural employment in Canada.

The combined income of those engaged in manufacturing in 1958 was slightly less than $5 billion or about 31 per cent of all Canadian wages, salaries, and supplementary labor income.

Manufacturing is by far the most important part of the Canadian economy.

Manufacturing provides the greatest amount of employment in Canada. It makes by far the largest contribution to government revenues. Its production enables Canadians to enjoy the second highest standard of living in the world.

Because of its contribution to our way of life, Canadian manufacturing deserves the support of every Canadian through the purchase of goods made in Canada.

Steel is the foundation of all our manufacturing, and Stelco is Canada's largest steel producer.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

NEW VEGETABLE VARIETIES FOR GROWERS

Is a new variety of vegetable always superior to an already established one?

Not always, states Dr. John Wiebe, Research Scientist, Horticultural Experiment Station, Vineland. New varieties are usually better suited to certain areas than others; thus vegetables which may thrive in Southern United States or Europe may be poorly suited in many respects to Ontario.

A good seed catalogue is a useful source of information about new varieties. Some catalogues list separately new varieties of special merit, many of which have won awards in trials in Canada and the United States.

What are some good new varieties for Ontario conditions? Dr. Wiebe suggests the following:

Muskmelon — Harper Hybrid
Pickling Cucumber — Hybrid Long Green
Early Red Sweet Pepper — Vineland
Summer Squash — Seneca Prolific Hybrid or Zucchini Hybrid Snap Beans — Pearlgreen and Slendergreen.

Early Cabbage — Early Marvel
Brussels Sprouts — Jade Cross

But new varieties alone are not enough, states Dr. Wiebe. Market gardeners must also keep up with new developments in cultural practices and spray materials. This information is obtainable from the Fruit and Vegetable Extension Service, Extension Building, Horticultural Experiment Station, Vineland, Ontario.

CANADIANS URGED TO EAT MORE APPLES

As cold storages bulge with the remains of 1958's bumper harvest, Canadians are being urged to eat more apples.

At February 1st, there were 4,340,000 bushels of apples in cold storage and another 275,000 in common storage. This was roughly 25 per cent of last year's 16,685,000 bushel crop.

Canada Department of Agriculture and the Canadian Horticultural Council have joined forces on a $25,000 promotional programme to increase home consumption. The campaign will run to mid-April.

Holdings Highest
Holdings at the first of the month were the highest in five years. At February 1st last year, there were 3,126,000 bushels in cold storage.

Coupled with the big 1958 crop, five per cent higher than the previous year and the third largest in the past decade, exports have been smaller to date due to the loss of an outlet in Continental Europe.

To February 1st, exports to the United Kingdom totalled about 849,000 bushels compared with 667,000 bushels at the same time last year. About 800,000 bushels had been exported to the United States — roughly the same as in 1958.

To stimulate consumption of apples and thereby reduce the cold storage holdings, Canadians in the next month or so will be encouraged to give them a prominent place in the daily menu.

ECONOMICS AND THE FARMER

Dairy Herd Improvement work, a joint project between the Livestock Branch and the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, has resulted in many of the risks involved in present-day farming being eliminated for farmers who are willing to study the cost analyses resulting from these co-operative studies. The Livestock Branch keeps individual cow records and does analyses on inheritance productive capacity while supervisors of the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch do cost and return analyses to determine the profitability of various practices. Comparisons showing practices which affect income and giving advice on what can be done about the weakest factors are sent to those co-operating. These conclusions also provide a fund of knowledge on what is and what isn't good practice in farming, for use of the Department in general, including the Extension Branch which works most closely with the farmers themselves.

The analysis at the end of five years indicates that a good deal of progress is being made by members of the Dairy Herd Improvement Association in the direction of improved incomes through improved practices. At present there are fifty-nine of these associations, having twenty-two to twenty-five members each. Approximately twelve hundred herds belong to Dairy Herd Improvement Associations and a supervisor from the Department visits every farm once a month.

Similar studies are carried on with hogs, with all cash crops at one time or another, and now with certain types of beef. Another aspect of this work is the Farm Management Associations in the province, which are sponsored by the Agricultural Representatives, with the records being analysed jointly by the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch and the Department of Agricultural Economics, Ontario Agricultural College.

Reports on many of the studies made by the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch are available from the Information Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto. In addition, many graph progress reports have been prepared on certain studies not considered of sufficient general interest for wholesale distribution. Information of Dairy Herd Improvement Association progress which is of local interest to individual counties is provided in five-year summaries. Information from individuals is treated with the strictest confidence, but any county may obtain a progress story of a group upon request.

Several of these Associations have gone from a position of losing money in the first year of operation to quite satisfactory gains after five years in the Dairy Herd Improvement programme. The Dairy Herd Improvement Association provides the only continuous study of operation, studies in other phases of agricultural practices all having set time limits.

Realizing that everything the Department did inevitably had an economic implication (for example, fertilizer or good stock may or may not pay, depending upon circumstances) the Minister of Agriculture created the Farm Economics Branch in 1948. Dr. Howard Patterson, who was then study organizer for the Economics Division of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, became the director of this new Branch and continues to head this increasingly important phase of the work of the Provincial Department of Agriculture as a whole. Now known as the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch, this Branch works with other branches of the Department of Agriculture, doing research and studying the implications of the problems the Department is wrestling with continually.

REGULATIONS DEFINE CHEESE MERCHANDISING

Merchandising of cheese in Canada was clarified during the past year, following amendments to the Canadian Dairy Products Regulations as they affect cheese composition and labelling.

Considered by many as the most advanced legislation of its kind, it sets out standards that every piece of cheese entering the Canadian market must meet.

There are over 400 recognized varieties of natural cheese. The regulations pin-point the "types" to which they belong and set forth most of the variations within the cheese types. They classify groups as to minimum fat content.

Best For Canada

Besides assuring that the Canadian consumer is offered only high quality cheese, the standards are a guide for everyone connected with the cheese industry in Canada.

Chief architects of the new legislation were Dr. H. A. Derby, director of the Dairy Products Division, Canada

Department of Agriculture, and Supervisor of Inspection, H. S. Anderson. They worked in co-operation with the Food and Drug Directorate of the Department of National Health and Welfare.

One factor that prompted the up-to-date influx of fancy European cheeses that often were low in fat content and confusing to the consumer.

Officials say that since the amendments went into effect, correspondence concerning foreign cheese has been drastically reduced. This, they say, is the result of new labelling requirements and of spelling out varieties and their minimum milk fat content.

"Service With A Smile"

Mrs. Jack Bush Hostess To River Valley W. Institute

Mrs. Jack Bush was hostess on Thursday, March 5th for River Valley Women's Institute with twenty-six members and visitors in attendance.

Mrs. Ross Bush conducted the opening exercises and business. Mrs. J. R. Donohoe presented her report and read the correspondence, which included "thank you" notes. A letter from the Department was presented and the conveners received their outlines. An appeal from the Stirling Red Cross was read and a donation made.

Mrs. J. L. Donohoe and Mrs. Vernon Harry reported over forty-nine dollars for the treasury, the proceeds from four February parties. Plans were made for a quilting in the new kitchen. Previous to the meeting the Friendship Link Secretary passed around material which she had received from Abbot's Leigh W.I., England.

Mrs. Harry Morrow will be hostess for the annual meeting on April 2nd. All conveners are to present their reports and a nominating committee was appointed.

West Hastings District Annual will be held at the L.O.O.F. Hall, Stirling, on May 28th with the River Valley Branch as hostess group.

A bill for work on the kitchen was authorized to be paid. Plans were made to complete some necessary work.

Roll call was "Your favourite pattern in china or silverware."

Mrs. Ernest Carr took charge of the programme and read a poem. She introduced Miss Rhonda Payne, who is engaged as a "Home Finder" in connection with the Children's Aid Society in Belleville. The Belleville Branch cares for 250 neglected children. She gave a resume of the work and outlined various problems. The speaker felt the new Receiving Home and Observation Centre on Highland Avenue, Belleville, was a wonderful asset to the work.

Mrs. Gerald Brooks voiced thanks to the speaker and presented her with a small gift for which she expressed a gracious "thank you."

Mrs. Ralph Utman contributed a piano selection of Scottish melodies. The motto, prepared by Mrs. E. C. Hay-Edwards, was read by the convener. The theme "Life is like a garden, what are you planting?" She stressed humour, friendship, herbs, spices, faith and hope.

Mrs. Gerald Brooks read "The Farmer's Creed," which was an interesting account of the value of the farmer to the nation.

Mrs. George Heasman sang "Dear Little Shamrock," with her daughter, Miss Grace Heasman as accompanist. The President conducted an apron sale and approximately two dozen aprons were sold and over seventeen dollars added to the treasury.

The conveners served light refreshments and Mrs. Phil Conley voiced thanks for hospitality, programme and lunch.

Philo Harris Pres. Hastings County Fed. Agriculture

The directors of the Hastings County Federation of Agriculture at their recent meeting elected the following executive:

Past President, Ross Ketcheson; President, Philo Harris; 1st Vice-President, Bernard Hunt; 2nd Vice-President, Jack Kane; Directors, Cecil Ketcheson, James Kinlin, Geo. Heasman, George Wood and Mrs. William Donnan; Director to O.F.A., Ross Ketcheson; Secretary, Mrs. Don Lumm; Treasurer, George Carlisle; Press Reporter, Miss Jane Gay.

Mr. Rae Cunningham, Fieldman for Eastern Ontario, was present and reported on some of the projects being carried on at the present time and the safe driving campaign.

James Kinlin reported on the beef producers meeting held in Toronto recently. Roy Sills spoke briefly, bringing the directors up-to-date on what has been accomplished by the Hastings County Hog Producers, of which Mr. Sills is President.

Miss Jane Gay reported on the third Provincial Leadership Forum held at Vineland, Ont. It's purpose was to give rural people the opportunity to study and discuss needs and problems of Ontario rural communities and how to promote the best in rural living.

Forest Fire Season April 1st to Oct. 31st

With the approach of the 1959 forest fire season, April 1st to October 31st, fire weather forecasting is to be stepped up in Ontario through exchange of more specialized information between the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests Division of Forest Protection and the Meteorological Division of the Federal Department of Transport.

Co-operation between the two organizations has been most successful in past years but Department officials point out that plans completed at a recent conference at the Weather Bureau at Toronto can be even more mutually beneficial.

The Department has 155 fully equipped weather stations operating during the fire season, supplying to the Meteorological Bureau information on wind velocity, relative humidity, temperature, precipitation. Rain gauges are located at more than 300 fire lookout towers across the province and 300 stations collect rainfall. In winter, snow depth recording stations are operated by the Department's Division of Fish and Wildlife.

Closer co-operation on forecasts and weather information is planned plus an arrangement for direct contact with Malton Airport weather station for general or specific information, imperative in the event of a serious fire situation impending.

The Department also plans to set up a year-round weather station, probably in the vicinity of Chapeau, which would fill a present gap in the national weather station network.

The Air Service, an important branch of the Division of Forest Protection, now operates a fleet of 46 aircraft consisting of 39 Beavers, six Otters and one amphibian twin-engine Widgeon. Aircraft were equipped last year with new water dropping tanks mounted on their floats which proved highly successful in fire control.

During the summer operating period, 23 bases are maintained and 11 of these are operated throughout the winter. Actually assigned to summer bases are 37 planes — 30 Beavers, six Otters and the Widgeon. The winter complement is ten Beavers, one Otter and the Widgeon.

T. E. Mackey, Chief of the Division of Forest Protection, explained that nine Beavers are unassigned to any particular base and may be considered as spares. One of the spares is used by the Check Pilot and another, to some extent, by the Supervisor of the Air Service Branch for inspection work, so that the number of spares varies from seven to nine. All are maintained in top condition ready to go into immediate service anywhere in the province.

"In an air service of this size," said Mr. Mackey, "so widespread and so depended upon for forest fire patrol, fire suppression and transportation of all kinds, it is most essential that provision be made for spare aircraft. Other duties include flying requirements of fish, wildlife and fur management, timber management, aerial surveys, essential flying for other departments of government and many miscellaneous assignments.

"During bad fire years such as 1948, 1955 and during most periods of extreme fire hazard, every spare aircraft is brought into service, due to regularly assigned aircraft being temporarily taken out of service for normal checks. These include proper maintenance — instruments, floats and communications equipment — essential to the very high degree of operating and standards and safety.

"The ratio of about one spare to five aircraft in operation is considered good business and is recognized as an important factor in the excellent safety record that the large air fleet operated by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests has been able to maintain."

In 1958 federal government revenue on sales and excise taxes collected at the factory on Canadian-made motor vehicles was $134,228,159.

HON. SIDNEY E. SMITH

Hon. Sidney Smith, M.P. For Local Riding, Dies Following A Stroke

Canada's Minister of State for External Affairs and Member of Parliament for the local riding of Hastings - Frontenac, died suddenly in Ottawa on Tuesday, following a stroke.

It was only eighteen months ago that he assumed the exacting office of External Affairs Minister and became the representative of this riding. So popular did he become with the voters of this constituency that in the Federal election last year he increased his majority to over seven thousand. Although his duties did not permit his residence in the constituency he evinced a great interest in all the current happenings within its bounds and was ever ready to assist any constituent in any way he could.

He also took part in the Stirling Centennial celebrations on August 3rd last, when he occupied the pulpit in St. Paul's United Church for the morning service.

He worked extremely hard and his passing came at a time when many observers felt he was just getting his best stride in his new job.

Dr. Smith was a member of the United Church and the Toronto and York Clubs. He leaves his wife, Harriet, whom he married in 1926, and three daughters, Mrs. Alan (Shelagh) Davenport, of Bristol, England; Mrs. A. M. S. (Moyra) MacKinnon, of Nobel, and Heather, of Toronto.

Rotary Minstrel Show and One-Act Play, "Queer Street," Shaping Up

Members of Stirling Rotary Club are hard at work these days learning their lines for the coming Minstrel Show and one-act play to be staged in the local theatre on April 9th and 10th next. Don Williams, interlocutor, is trying to "whip" the artists in the Minstrel Show in shape, while E. C. Hay-Elis is directing the one-act play, "Queer Street."

The cast for the play includes a cross section of the Club, with such well known characters as Bill Webber, Geo. Lyons, H. Wells, Les Rawlings, Ken Gillies and Sid McDonald. No advance information is at hand on the various parts, but the word is out that patrons of the show will have a "million" laughs.

In the Minstrel Show, with Don Williams as interlocutor will be associated R. E. Fox, Geo. Lyons, Geo. Noble, Bob Patterson, Bob Hatton, Harold E. Baker and Graham Mouck as end men. The programme also includes a dance routine by C. E. West, Bob Hatton, Geo. Noble and Carl Bateman who are being trained in the terpsichorean art by Miss Barbara Woodbeck, and step dance numbers by Edward Reynolds.

The local quartette, J. Bush, H. Brown, Grant Richardson and Ralph Johnson, the Morrow Sisters, Ted Reynolds, X. P. Mayhew, Maurice Bell, Stuart McArthur, Sherwood Reid and Major Fraser will augment the programme of the Rotarians.

According to those who profess to know this will be the "best" program to be offered Stirling and community in years. So make your plans now to attend. Tickets are available from any Rotarian.

The following is a copy of the report as read by Mrs. David Duffin, Secretary, at the annual meeting of the Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter Imperial Order Daughters of the Empire, Stirling, Ontario:

It is my privilege to present the 18th annual report of the Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter, I.O.D.E.

During the year 1958 ten regular meetings were held — seven in the members' homes and three in the I.O.D.E. hall. A quilting bee was held at the home of Mrs. D. W. Rogers.

The programmes have been varied but the highlights include:

1. A visit from Mr. Paul Mercier, a Jeweller in Belleville, with the crown which he made — a replica of the one used at the Coronation of Queen Elizabeth II.

2. Two films, "Churchill, Man of the Century" and "The Sceptre and the Mace."

3. Miss Henrietta Wood showed slides of her trip to Europe.

4. Eight Girl Guides assisted with the programme and lunch while working for proficiency badges.

5. Mr. Wm. Sutherland, town constable, addressed the group and conducted a questionnaire pertaining to his work.

Our annual meeting was preceded by a banquet at the I.O.O.F. Hall.

The Provincial Annual Meeting in Hamilton was attended by our Honorary Regent, Vice Regent, Treasurer, a delegate and two other members.

Mesdames Harold Baker, Fred Trow, Robert Hatton and Maurice Montgomery were welcomed into the Order during the year.

Our membership now is 48 and one life member. The Chapter subscribes 100 percent to Echoes.

We regret the loss of Mesdames Fred Trow, Clive White and Thomas MacConnell, who withdrew their memberships.

Our Chapter scrapbook has been completed to date and is to be sent to the Scrapbook Competition in Hamilton in April.

A bursary of $100.00 was given to a needy student attending Peterboro Teacher's College and $25.00 to our local public school on Victoria Day. A book was presented to Allen Fletcher, the student with the highest standing in Grade VIII.

The annual Spinster's Dance and Spring Fashion Show were well attended, and most successful.

The Festival of Sacred Praise was held in Stirling again in May and we were pleased to assist with a $10.00 donation.

Stirling Centennial Celebrations on August 3, 4, 5 and 6 will long be remembered and we will always be happy that we took an active part in helping make it such a success. Members spent many hours on various committees — decorating, lunch, registration and bulleting.

Following the Drumhead Service on Sunday, August 3rd, the I.O.D.E. invited everyone to attend their Garden Party held for the purpose of meeting and renewing friends and acquaintances. On August 4th, our Standard preceded the float, decorated by the members and we were pleased to receive second prize for our endeavours.

Another first was established when a Smorgasborg dinner was held, with great success, in the Community Hall in November.

A new flag was presented to the Frankford Girl Guides and several members attended the Dedication Service in the United Church November 9th.

Several members attended a special meeting on Civil Defence, sponsored by the Argyll Chapter, I.O.D.E., Belleville, on November 11th. That morning we took part in the memorial service at the Cenotaph and Mrs. Edwin Warren, Vice-Regent, placed the wreath. The Standard was carried by Mrs. Bruce Glendinning. Church service was held in St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church November 9th.

Horticultural Society Hints

Sweet peas are indispensable on any list of annual vines for Canada. They are difficult to grow in the Southern part of Ontario, where hot dry weather in early summer shrivels the vines. They thrive best in cool, moist air. But many gardeners, even in these areas, have had good luck with the new varieties that are resistant to heat and drought. Some start the seed in early March in pots indoors. Also some claim better results outside in rows running north and south, and where they will get some shade from the afternoon sun.

If you decide to grow sweet peas you must carefully prepare the bed for them. Dig a ditch one foot wide, two feet deep and as long as you want it. Put in a six-inch layer of well rotted manure and good garden soil. Finally, fill up the ditch with good soil, with no manure added. If you wish, you can do this job in the fall, so you will be ready to plant as soon as the ground is workable. (With sweet peas the ground doesn't have to be warm).

When it's time to plant, soak your seeds in a liquid fertilizer solution for an hour, then dust them with a bacterial inoculant to stimulate stronger growth. Plant them 2 inches deep in the prepared ditch. Sow in a double row, about 4 inches apart. When they are four to five inches tall, give them a wire netting, brush or string support. Keep them well watered and fertilized every week, and pick the flowers constantly.

We predict that you'll never want to make out a seed order again without sweet peas on your list of annual vines.

March Meeting Sidney Jr. Farmers

The March meeting of Sidney Junior Farmers was held at the Fourth Line Community Centre on March 12th. The meeting was opened with a sing-song led by Frances Tucker and Marilyn Phillips. This was followed by the paper by Allen Hamilton.

Sidney Juniors will be hold a dance in April at Wallbridge Hall with music supplied by the Madoc Music Makers. The committee chosen for the dance was Marilyn Phillips, Carl Richards, Roger Firkin and Julia Savage.

The annual church meeting is to be held on June 7th with Sidney as host.

The project of having a calf to raffle at the Belleville Fair was discussed. Orders for Junior Farmer pins, crests, jackets and blazers were taken. The next meeting will be held on April 9th with the Vice-President Garry Harrington in charge.

The proposed bus trip this spring was discussed although nothing definite has been decided as to destination, etc. Wanda Mallory, Garry Harrington, Frances Tucker, Griffen Ketchson and Nancy McGowan are the committee in charge of this trip.

It was suggested that the members be taught how to jive. The following are in charge, Louise Woods, Annice Seeley, Bill Vermilyea and Marilyn Phillips.

Bob Mallory introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Corporal R. Rackham of the O.P.P., who gave a talk on the principles of finger printing. Frances Tucker extended the thanks of the club to the O.P.P. officer for his interesting discussion.

The meeting was adjourned and everyone enjoyed lunch and recreation.

A bicycle on a busy road may mean irritation and even inconvenience to a motorist. But, points out the Ontario Safety League, to the rider it may mean pleasure, healthy physical exercise, and the only means of transportation he can afford. Tolerance, and mutual helpfulness, can make travelling pleasanter for all classes of road users.

Teaching Led This Alderman Into Municipal Politics

(From The Barrie Examiner)

It takes a school teacher to really know a person well, and when one has taught school in the same place for 36 years there are a lot of folk in the city whom he knows well — and vice versa.

That explains, partly at least, the popularity at the polls of Arthur S. Morrow, Barrie Alderman since 1955 and now, as acting Mayor, only the second official wearer of the city's new formal chain of office.

He taught two generations of Barrie children at the Central Collegiate, starting in 1922 when there were only 10 teachers in the staff here. He says he often had students say he had taught their mothers.

"I quit when I thought they would be saying I taught their grandmothers."

Arthur Morrow was born on a farm near Stirling in Hastings County and went to the local little red school house. He went on to Stirling High School and Queen's University. Then came four and a half years public school teaching and two more with the army.

He was influenced to come to Barrie by an old family friend, the late A. R. Girdwood, who retired in 1945 as principal of the Barrie Collegiate. It was the same Mr. Girdwood, who caused Mr. Morrow to take up politics.

However, he was taking an active part in public life before he went to the council. He chaired the committee charged with rebuilding Trinity Church which had been destroyed in 1934 by lightning and subsequent fire. Later he was a member of the committee which built the church hall. He is still a sidesman of Trinity Church.

He is also on the Scout Group Committee in Barrie, although he does not take any scoutmaster duties.

His only club is the Curling Club. He has been an enthusiastic curler for years and joined the club soon after the new rink was opened.

Service clubs? No. Mr. Morrow explains he is "not a joiner." He would join an organization only to put something into it — and he has little time for more activities.

He married the former Doris Robertson since arriving in Barrie and they have two boys and two girls, all now grown up. There are five grandchildren.

Heads Senior Committee

The alderman now heads the senior of the council's standing committees — that which deals with finance. This is keeping him busy these days because this is budget time. Demands for grants and appropriations are flowing into the committee, and Mr. Morrow has been waiting to see what the Ontario Government is going to give by way of grants.

"From what I read in the paper it looks as if the grants are more favourable to the city," he comments. As soon as official confirmation from the government arrives his committee will get down to deciding how much money the city will need this year and how much must be raised from the taxpayers.

Mr. Morrow points out that the city has little control over expenditure of much of the taxes raised. The Public School Board, the Collegiate Board, the Parks Board and, up to this year, the County of Simcoe, all make their appropriation through council.

The rapid growth of Barrie in the last decade has brought many strangers to the community and Mr. Morrow confesses he now doesn't know all of the people of his church or in his ward, as he used to do. But most folk will remember him particularly as the man in charge of the city inaugural ceremonies last New Year.

He collected that job as chairman of the committee for welfare, recreation and community services — an off-shot of Finance whose work is being done this year by the finance committee.

An indication of the high esteem in which he is held by his fellow councillors came when this newspaper published a Municipal Commentary in which three council members were selected as "men of the year."

At the next Council meeting two aldermen privately reproached the writer for omitting the name Morrow, and one other stood up and protested during the formal session, suggesting the Examiner owed Alderman Arthur Morrow an apology. An assenting murmur came from around the chamber.

Mr. Morrow retired from teaching last summer, his last big extra-curricular job there being to organize the band's reception after the overseas tour. As treasurer of the band for years and town alderman the job naturally came to him.

Now he looks forward to more spare time to devote to public service. It seems his retirement may be only nominal.

People seldom get far off the straight and narrow path if they use the golden rule to measure their actions.

The Chinese invented paper.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

INJECTION

It has been a long, cold, miserable winter here in Winnipeg, and it has made some of us pretty hard to get along with, and a bit droopy about our work.

Two things have happened, though, to give me an injection of goodwill and pep.

First, and perhaps most important, I got into a word battle with another man, in which we smote each other hip and thigh — and then, through correspondence, we became good friends, each with considerable respect for the other. Ah that all such battles could end so agreeably for the combatants!

Second, I found I had to make a trip, and my work was already behind. Funny what you can do when you must. I burned the midnight oil two or three nights in succession, and I was up at my typewriter at sunup for a while — but when this column is written and checked for spelling I'll be right on top of my schedule and ready to grab a plane with a free conscience. And it feels good to have extended myself to the limit — haven't even had time to notice how miserable the winter is lately!

I suppose that when the trip is over I'll come back to another work load, but I propose to trick myself by setting a deadline and making myself some promises. Perhaps we all need deadlines of one sort or another, even if we must impose them on ourselves. Work is a terrible thing, until you get at it and do it — and then, surprisingly enough, it can be more fun than loafing.

If you've been down in the dumps or functioning like a carbonized-up motor, try setting a deadline and see what it does for you! Soon you'll be into your work with real vigor and getting a tremendous bang out of it. At least, that's the way it has been with me this week. Maybe I ought to hire someone to follow me around and kick me in the shins when I loaf! I hope you are too busy to apply for the job!

When disaster strikes your Canadian Red Cross is on the job at once to provide emergency care, shelter and supplies.

Despite the speed of modern living the successful man saves enough time to plan his next move.

Spring Executive Meeting W. Hastings District W.I.

The Spring Executive Meeting of

West Hastings District Women's Institute convened on Saturday, March 14th in the board room of Leslie's Shoe Store, Belleville, and was opened with the Mary Stewart Collect by the President, Mrs. Harry Coulter. The other representatives were as follows: Bay of Quinte, Mrs. John Reid; Chatterton, Mrs. Ben Blecker; Pine Grove, Mrs. Allyn Finkle; River Valley, Mrs. Percy MacMullen; Stirling, Mrs. Robert Williams; Uniondale, Mrs. Milton Grills; Wallbridge, Mrs. Harold Phillips and Mrs. E. B. Phillips.

The Secretary gave a full report. There are 187 members and the Branch fee of twenty-five cents per member will cover district expenses.

The District Annual will be held on Thursday, May 28th in the I.O.O.F. dining hall at Stirling and the River Valley Branch will serve the noon lunch for 50c. There will be two sessions and the morning registration will be at 9.00 a.m. Mrs. Clifford Gillespie, Grafton, Board Director, will bring the report of the Federated Board Meeting.

In June 1958 a new office of Public Relations Representative was established by the department and there is no time limit for length of years to serve in this capacity. This department is interwoven into the fabric of F.W.I.O. responsibility. Mrs. Percy MacMullen was appointed as P.R.R. for the West Hastings W.I. District. Six branches appointed a member to this office in July 1958. One branch did not do so and their secretary will send in the report. Each officer should fill out her form re donations for charitable, educational, health, F.W.I.O. projects, etc., and present her report at the Annual Meeting of the Branch. Then this report should be forwarded to the District Public Relations Representative so that it can be summarized for the report at District Annual in May.

The branches were also reminded that the Provincial Ploughing Match will be held in the Belleville area in 1961 and all branches in Hastings County will be asked to assist with the work of the Provincial W.I. tent, where food and personnel will be needed.

The Women's Institute pride themselves in keeping abreast of the times. At the A.C.W.W. Conference in Cayton last year the publicity committee recommended the exchange of film strips and pen pals. All this leads to better understanding between countries.

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen, P.R.R.)

The Good Driver

A desire for recognition is one of the basic human needs. The young, and the immature (who may be not-so-young) often seek the recognition they crave by making themselves conspicuous. That is particularly true on the roads.

Probably the best short definition of good driving is "A good driver is INCONSPICUOUS at all times." Remember that — it's a sure way to recognize consistent good driving. And, if it isn't consistent, it isn't good.

Apply that definition and you will spot-light bad driving of every degree; from racing at 90 m.p.h. with a blaring horn, to clattering up windows with dice and baby boots.

Following too closely, cutting in lane straddling, passing on curves are all conspicuous — and all bad driving. So is loafing along a busy highway at 35 m.p.h.; delaying hundreds by parking on main thoroughfares at rush hours; pumping the horn in a traffic jam; stalling and bumping when trying to park.

A driver is conspicuous when his name is called out in police court; when he has to admit to friends that his licence has been suspended; and he is very, very conspicuous when a crowd gathers to see him helped out of an automobile wreck.

Everything the man-at-the-wheel does that attracts undue attention is bad driving. "A good driver is inconspicuous at all times."

Do You Have Any Christmas Cards?

The Stirling Rangers have taken over the Brownie project of collecting used Christmas cards and sending them to disabled ex-service men in Yorkshire, England.

Guy Malloney who is himself in a wheel chair is the head of the work done by these men.

The cards are sent the way they are received. Unusable parts are destroyed and replaced by new sections. The cards are then sold. This money is a means of helping the handicapped to earn their own living and eventually return to their homes and families.

The Rangers are asking anyone who may have Christmas cards to please leave them at the office of the Stirling Creamery or Hatton Hardware, so that they may assist these men to get more and better machinery and give the unemployed a job to do. It would be very much appreciated if all cards were in by the 28th of March.

Sam M. Nicolson Ex-Reeve of Sidney Died Tuesday

Many local and district citizens learned with regret of the sudden passing of Sam Nicolson, a former Reeve of Sidney Township, at his home on the Fifth Concession of Sidney Township on Tuesday morning.

He was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Nicolson and was in his 75th year.

He took an active interest in municipal life and served on the township council and as reeve of the municipality for several years.

He was affiliated with the Wallbridge United Church and was a member of Franck Lodge, A.F. & A.M., No. 127, Frankford, and also of the Minerva Chapter, No. 138, O.E.S., at Belleville. He took an active interest in the work of the Belleville Fair and was a director for many years.

He is survived by his wife, the former Mary Ethel Badgley; one son, Grant, at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Donald (Audrey) Doolittle, Toronto, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Tucker, Belleville, and Mrs. Kenneth Campbell, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

High School Burglarized

Thieves rifled the contents of the vault in the local High School some time Monday night and got approximately $15.00 for their efforts.

Entrance was gained through a window on the east side of the shop department, from where they reached the vault by removing the hinge pins of the two doors leading from the shop. Using the acetylene cutting torch from the shop they cut a hole in the vault door to gain access. Some of the contents of the vault were set on fire by the cutting torch but the thieves extinguished the blaze with a fire extinguisher which was close at hand.

A considerable amount of cash was overlooked by the culprits.

The principal's office was also ransacked but nothing was taken.

Police Chief W. Sutherland investigated the break-in.

Miss Nellie Smith, Deaconess, Is Speaker at St. Andrew's W.M.S.

St. Andrew's Woman's Missionary Society met on March 17th in the Church in a joint meeting with St. Andrew's Woman's Missionary Society of West Hinton.

Mrs. B. Reid, the President, was in charge of the meeting and welcomed all present. She gave an Easter message. The hymn "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross" was sung.

Following the business portion Mrs. Roy Eggleton led in prayer.

Mrs. B. Reid read different articles on Easter. Miss Gena Spry had the Scripture Lesson, taken from Matthew 28, which was followed by the singing of the hymn, "Christ the Lord is Risen Today."

Mrs. B. Reid introduced the guest speaker, Miss Nellie Smith, Toronto. Miss Smith is a Graduate Deaconess and is employed in the head office of the Society.

Miss Smith spoke on the Assets and Liabilities of the Presbyterian Church in Canada insofar as Missions are concerned. She mentioned that in India although 85 percent of the people were still illiterate our church was reaching the people by acts of kindness such as curing a sick child in a village and because of the child becoming well, the village would often turn to Christianity — God moves in a mysterious way. His wonders to perform. In Canada although we have several Chinese congregations it has been a great task for the church in converting 16,000 Chinese non-Christians. In our schools for Indian children we have cared for 300 by way of clothing. Last year our representatives at the Immigration Centres welcomed 7,000 Presbyterians to Canada; 25,000 people were visited in hospital.

Through a church paper people were learning about God even behind the Iron Curtain. "God's word does not return void." On the liability side she mentioned the lack in number of missionaries in Formosa and on the Bible field. After all Jesus said, "Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." More people should be willing to make sacrifices on behalf of the church. Some are ready to remove their garments while others are content to carry the palm branches. Miss Smith led a questionable thought with her listeners, "Was the church of God moving like a mighty army?"

The meeting was closed with prayer.

The members were served delicious refreshments in the Church Parlours at tables attractively decorated with Easter trimmings.

Mrs. Harry Benson voiced words of appreciation to the guest speaker and others who had helped.

The Good Driver

Russians may be particularly good drivers, the Ontario Safety League believes. They have at least one exceptional attribute.

The Russians are noted for many things. It would be out-of-place to list them here. But in relation to car driving it is worth considering their pre-eminence — at the game of chess.

An essential of good chess is the ability to foresee both the probable and possible moves of others, well in advance. To foresee them, and to forestall them if they threaten danger.

Similarly, good drivers "drive ahead." While they are dealing with one situation they are anticipating others. They try to plan their own moves, and foresee the moves of others, as far in advance as possible. And they never overlook the need for defence. "Leave yourself an out!" sums up the outlook of a good defensive driver. He tries always to be prepared for the unexpected. His main defence is to ensure that he always has adequate stopping distance ahead — and, if practicable, swerving room to one side — to avoid danger from any possible traffic development.

The parallel between chess and driving cannot be taken too far. There should be no element of competition in driving, while chess is a contest with the ultimate aim of tying up the opposition so that it cannot move at all. But Ontario motorists sometimes feel that winter driving is this sort of competitive game... with the weatherman on the other side of the board, playing white.

Men who are loud and noisy seldom are a howling success.

Horticultural Society Hints Ornamental Hedges

Aside from trees, a hedge is probably the most permanent part of home landscaping. A well cared for, well chosen and well placed hedge is always a wonderful asset to a property's appearance, and it also serves a useful purpose to emphasize a border or dividing line, or substitute for a wall or fence.

Different plants are suitable for hedges. Before choosing it might be well to get suggestions from a local nurseryman. In colder regions one of the favorite is privet, also Barberry. Clipped persia lilac bush, honeysuckle, spiraea hedges produce a more formal and neat effect than unclipped ones, but both forms definitely have their place in landscape schemes.

For spacing of plants, you must take into consideration whether the plant you're using will remain small, whether it's to be clipped or unclipped. Large plants such as persia lilac should have plenty of room.

For closely-spaced plants, dig a trench wide and deep enough to accommodate roots without crowding. Set plants about two inches deeper than they stood in nursery, spread roots carefully with hands and work soil around them until trench is half full. Then fill trench with water and let it soak away. Straighten any plants that moved out of line and fill in remaining soil. All hedges except evergreens should be cut back severely at planting time. This encourages branching at the base, assuring that the bottom of the hedge will be well filled out. The hedge is permitted to grow the first summer unclipped. The following winter clip it back a few inches above the first pruning. The second season the new tips of growth may be trimmed once or twice to further promote branching and thickening of the hedge. The third season you may begin trimming it to its finished form.

THE BIBLE TODAY

(By Rev. C. R. Rudd)

"A Finger-Fono" What is it? A convenience for the modern hitch-hiker? No! The Finger-Fono is actually a small plastic phonograph developed by RCA and the Bible Society. Its name is derived from the fact that it is operated by turning it with the forefinger. Portions of Scripture on small records can be supplied to people unable to read, but able to listen to God's word.

Multitudes of blind persons as well as millions of illiterates can now listen to the word of God in their mother tongue.

OF MANY THINGS

(By Ambrose Hills)

WHO DO YOU LOVE?

I visit frequently at the home of a couple where the wife, a beautiful woman, is in the habit of embracing her husband and asking him, "Who do you love?"

Jim is supposed to reply, ardently, overlooking the bad grammar, with a whispered, "You, of course, darling!" At least I presume that is what is expected, but that is not what comes out.

Jim looks sheepish, slightly annoyed, and reluctantly mutters, "You." He even giggles nervously — and Jim is not the giggling type. This seems to satisfy his wife; she giggles a little, too, and shrugs, and looks over at me with a sort of "Canadians-are-lousy-lovers" expression. Then she cooks up such a peach of a dinner, and behaves so charmingly for the balance of the evening, that I forget her one bad habit and Jim looks moon-eyed at her and all is bliss. Seeing this obvious happiness, I refrain from pointing out to her that if she must discuss love in the presence of visitors, she should simply say, "I love you, Jim," and avoid the rhetorical question.

In fact, I even get to thinking that maybe I am wrong, and she is right. Certainly, all of us should give some thought from time to time to the persons we love. The man who is not up to his neck in love with someone — woman, child, or friend — is leading only half a life. I know a man who is desperately in love with an absolutely no-good wife — but in my opinion, he needs and would ask no pity. It is better to love a loon than to love no one but yourself.

So who, or whom, do you love? Give it a thought from time to time. And when you know the answer — tell it to the lucky boy or girl! And cut out those rhetorical questions!

Presbytery W.A. Executive

The executive of the Hastings and Prince Edward Branch of the Belleville Presbytery Women's Association, United Church of Canada, met in Bridge Street United Church, Belleville, on Thursday, March 12th at 10.30 a.m.

The President, Mrs. R. C. Jackson, Madoc, opened the meeting by reading a poem, "New Every Morning," following which the theme hymn was sung. The morning devotion was given by Mrs. Whattam, of Picton, who chose as her theme the story of the first Easter morn in the garden. Mrs. A. N. Pyear played the piano for the singing of the hymns.

Reports were given by Mrs. George Roblin, Secretary; Mrs. K. Weaver, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Howard Adams, treasurer. Ninety-two local associations have affiliated during the year.

Chairmen of the standing committees were asked for their reports, but only three were heard: Mrs. C. W. Sine, Literature; Mrs. H. Pierson, Christian Citizenship; Miss L. Johnson, Leadership Education. Miss Johnson suggested in her report that a leadership training day be held in the Presbytery W.A. It was decided to let the rallies arrange their own leadership education days.

After a box lunch, social half hour and inspection of the literature table, the ladies took their places for the afternoon meeting. Mrs. C. LaRue, of Foxboro, led in the afternoon devotional period, choosing her theme from John 15: 1-8.

It was decided to send important books and documents to Rev. Reynolds, Emmanuel College, Toronto, to be placed in the archives of the United Church for safe keeping. The remainder of the meeting was taken up with the planning of the programme for the annual meeting which will be held in Bridge Street United Church, Belleville, on Thursday, May 28th, commencing at 9.15 a.m.

Mrs. R. C. Jackson and Mrs. C. LaRue were appointed delegates to Dominion Council W.A., May 10th to 15th in Toronto. The meeting closed with the W.A. benediction.

St. Paul's Mission Band

On Wednesday, March 11th, St. Paul's Mission Band held their monthly meeting. After a welcome from the President, Marion Warren, everyone repeated the Mission Band Purpose. The hymn, "Jesus Tender Shepherd," was sung and played by Sue Anne Bastedo. After the Lord's Prayer, Mrs. Waite read the roll call. There were 41 members present and three visitors.

The Scripture reading of "The Good Samaritan" was given by Karen Vandervoort. Dianne Francis gave a piano solo, "What a Friend we have in Jesus," followed by a prayer by Cheryl Stapley.

Robert Reynolds and Judy Patterson took up the offering, which was dedicated by Peter Wilkins. The Treasurer's report was given by Judy Patterson and the Secretary's minutes read by Giesela Fieguth. The hymn "We Are Climbing Jacob's Ladder" was sung.

A chapter from the study book on "A Japanese Doll," was given by Mrs. Wm. Wilkins, while Bonnie Bateman dressed in the costume of a Japanese doll. Dianne Woodcox and Brenda St. Pierre gave out the "World Friends" magazines.

The lunch committee, Susan West, Linda West, Nancy Wilson and Bonnie Bateman, served sandwiches and Easter candles which were much appreciated by all. The meeting closed with the benediction.

Mrs. Jack McCaughen, who has been the Mission Band leader for many years, has had to retire for the time being and Mrs. Gerald Bush has taken her place.

F. Clarke Dies In House Fire

Frank Clarke lost his life in a fire which destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick McCaw on Saturday night. The alarm was turned in at 2.15 a.m. The McCaw home was located on the ninth concession road, about a mile south of the Crookston Road, within three miles west of Tweed.

Mr. and Mrs. McCaw were aroused from their sleep by the smell of fire and barely managed to escape to their neighbours, Mr. Norman Thompson, some 50 yards away where Mr. Thompson turned in the alarm.

By the time they were able to return to their house with help the fire had reached such proportions they were unable to get upstairs where Mr. Frank Clarke, who was employed on the farm, was sleeping.

Attempts were made to reach Mr. Clarke but the flames and smoke drove the firemen back. A final attempt was made by using a Scott air pak but the heat was so intense that the effort proved hopeless.

THE FOOD BASKET

LOOK WHAT YOU CAN DO WITH APPLESAUCE

For Salad or Dessert . . . Dissolve a package of lemon jelly powder in 1½ cups boiling water. Chill, but before it sets fold in 1 20-ounce can (or 2 to 2½ cups home made) applesauce. Pour into individual moulds or a large mould and chill until set. Unmould and serve with other fruits and cottage cheese on a fruit salad plate; or alone on lettuce as a side salad with pork; or with cream for dessert.

Creamy Apple Topping . . . goes beautifully with gingerbread. To make it fold ½ cup whipping cream, whipped, into 1 cup chilled applesauce.

Twenty Minute Apple Dessert for 6 . . . is no trouble at all to make! Pour a 20-ounce can (or 2 to 2½ cups home-made) applesauce into a greased, small baking dish. Combine 1 cup dry bread crumbs, ½ cup brown sugar and cut in ¼ cup butter. Sprinkle mixture over applesauce. Bake in moderately hot oven, 375 degs. F. until top is golden brown, about 20 minutes.

For Stuffed Baked Pork Tenderloin or chops with a fruity, fresh pork-apple flavour, use applesauce in place of liquid to moisten the stuffing.

To make bright red Cinnamon Applesauce, add ½ cup red cinnamon candies to 2 cups hot fresh or canned applesauce. Serve warm over spice cake or gingerbread or chill and serve with cream.

You can whip up Apple-Honey-Sherbet in a spare moment, pour it into a refrigerator tray and freeze for a busy day.

Simply combine 2½ cups (1 20-oz. can) sieved applesauce with ½ cup of white honey, a few grains of salt and 2 to 4 tablespoons sugar. Beat 2 egg whites until stiff, adding 2 to 4 tablespoons sugar gradually, beat until mixture stands in peaks and fold into the applesauce mixture. Freeze in refrigerator tray.

We're still worried about the reporter who wrote: "The deceased was the father of five sons. Four of them are respected citizens of Vancouver and the fifth lives in Ontario."

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

FARM SAFETY SURVEY GETS UNDER WAY

The first province-wide farm accident survey to be carried out in Ontario got under way the first week in March.

Undertaken by the Ontario Department of Agriculture, through the branch offices of the Department of Agriculture in Ontario counties and districts, the survey will seek to record and classify all accidents occurring on Ontario farms between March 1st, 1959, and February 29th, 1960. The results obtained will assist the Department in planning a safety education programme for Ontario farmers and their families. The Department will be assisted by local persons and organizations.

The survey is a further step in the Department's safety program which it has conducted for several years with the 4-H and Junior Farmer organizations, and through exhibits, publications, and co-operative programmes with the Ontario Provincial Police.

"I have no doubt that Ontario farm people will welcome this undertaking which seeks to diminish the number of farm accidents and the economic loss that inevitably accompanies them," states the Hon. W. A. Goodfellow, Minister of Agriculture for Ontario. "I know they will do all in their power to assist the Department in this project, and thus contribute to a better social and economic life in the province."

R.O.P. TESTS CHANGED

Major changes in Record of Performance for purebred swine to make the tests more useful have been announced by officials of the Livestock Division of the Canada Department of Agriculture.

Headlining the changes is the removal of qualifying standards for sows and boars, which were based on carcass desirability only. Reducing the emphasis on carcass score should result in more attention to the economically-important factors of feed utilization and age for weight.

The term "qualified for advanced registry" will be discontinued. In its place, an average will be provided for each station or province for: (1) Age for weight; (2) Carcass score; and (3) Feed utilization.

Leanness Stressed

Deciding the merits of a breeding pig will be left to the judgment of the individual farmer or breeder. The department will limit its part to providing the facts brought out by the tests.

Changes in the system of carcass scoring are designed to place still greater emphasis on desirable leanness. To do this, certain factors, such as type and balance, will be dropped, and points for area of loin and low back fat will be increased.

In a move to get a more direct representation of breeders on its advisory board, the department is asking each test station committee to appoint a breeder representative to the board. It will also include representatives of national breeder organizations.

The changes will be applied to animals tested with groups farrowed after January 1st this year.

DISPOSAL OF SUMMER RESORT LANDS

Under the new standardized policy which has been set up for the Province, the Department will only deal with Summer Resort parcels which have been laid out in registered surveyed subdivisions.

Henceforth, this will mean that the individual who desires to acquire a cottage site must do so from the areas which have been surveyed.

As and when areas are surveyed and the sites become available, prospective applicants whose names have been kept on file, will be advised.

POWDERED MILK ISSUE TOLD

Up to 110,000,000 pounds of Canadian dry skimmed milk will be used this year. D. B. Goodwillie, Canada Department of Agriculture dairy merchandising expert, has predicted.

He told the Canadian Milk Powder Manufacturers' Association in Toronto that 100,000,000 pounds were used in 1958 — or ten per cent more than ever before.

At the same time, stocks at the first of the year were the highest on record.

Mr. Goodwillie noted that 1958 production was a record 186,000,000 pounds, four times greater than just seven years ago, due to the growth of whole milk creameries, price, and increased milk production.

Quality Down

Because of new plants and capacity or over capacity operations, quality last year was the poorest since 1951.

However, exports of almost 50,000,000 pounds were highest on record. World prices today are from eight to ten cents — somewhat higher than a year ago.

The Agricultural Stabilization Board bought about 100,000,000 pounds of powdered milk in 1958, about 75 per cent being spray process. All of it came from Ontario and Quebec. The Board is still being offered several cars a week, but purchases are currently running about half of a year ago at this time.

Purchases are expected to be heavier before May 1st, though, Mr. Goodwillie added.

SPRING CONTROL OF PARASITES IN SHEEP

Parasitic gastro-enteritis begins to take its toll in Ontario sheep flocks in the spring of the year. Just before lambing the ewe's condition and resistance is at its lowest ebb. The symptoms of parasitism are often overlooked by the farmers when the disease occurs in animals subsisting on a poor diet. In the more severely affected animals the loss of condition frequently proceeds until a state of emaciation is reached. It is not uncommon for scouring to occur in the affected animals. The long woolly coat of sheep in the springtime helps to hide the poor condition of the animals due to parasitism. Threadworms and stomach worms are the main internal parasites affecting sheep at this time of year. The nodular worms and other internal parasites of sheep should be attended to later in the season. According to the Ontario Veterinary College, Department of Parasitology, now is the time to dose all sheep for parasitism. Phenothiazine is the drug of choice for this purpose. Ewes which are due to lamb within a month should not be treated until after they have lambed, such practices may result in abortion or premature birth. All animals should be treated again just before they are put out on summer pasture. No treatment should be given lambs under three months of age.

Changes in the system of carcass scoring are designed to place still greater emphasis on desirable leanness. To do this, certain factors, such as type and balance, will be dropped, and points for area of loin and low back fat will be increased.

CERTIFIED SEED LACK NOT SERIOUS U.S. IMPORTS SAID AVAILABLE

Farmers should be able to obtain recommended varieties of certified seed more easily this spring than in past years — even though some Canadian-grown seeds are in short supply.

A small crop will limit Canadian-grown alfalfa seed, but supplies of American certified alfalfa of such varieties as Vernal, Ranger and Dupuits should be readily obtainable, says the Plant Products Division, Canada Department of Agriculture.

Clover Short

Double-cut red clover seed production was barely enough in 1958 to meet normal domestic demands and this seed, too, may have to be imported.

Imported alfalfa and red clover seed, unless in sealed containers as certified seed, is required to be one per cent stained to signify it is not of Canadian origin. The seed must also be labelled to show the country of origin.

Lasalle red clover seed, an improved double-cut variety, was produced in larger volume last year and some certified seed of this variety for forage use is expected to be carried by seedsmen. With production of single-cut Altaawade red clover seed more than twice that of average, there should be sufficient seed for Canadian use. There will also be adequate supplies of alsike and sweet clover seed.

Production of timothy seed was less than average in 1958, but there will be sufficient seed for planting in 1959. Production of registered and certified seed of Climax timothy, an improved variety later maturing and more leafy than common, was substantial but farmers are advised to order early to be sure of getting their supplies.

Supplies of Canadian-grown bromegrass and crested wheatgrass seeds should meet usual demands with relatively good stocks of certified seed of the improved varieties of the latter, such as Summit. It is expected that some varieties of American certified seed of bromegrass, such as a Lincoln, may be available in limited quantities.

Weather A Factor

Quality registered and certified and commercial seed of the popular varieties of cereals are expected to be plentiful in most districts. Poor harvest weather in some parts last fall seriously affected the grain crop for seed use and some local shortages are anticipated. This may require the transfer of seed from areas of surplus to those of short supply. Farmers in need of seed grain should make early enquiries about their supplies.

It is expected that retail prices for most forage seeds will be higher this spring than in 1958. Of the principal hay and pasture kinds, the largest increase in price will probably be in double-cut or early red clover and timothy. No significant change is expected in retail prices of most varieties of cereals.

GROWING APPLES WITH DWARF TREES

Why grow dwarf trees?

Larger trees require more spray, bigger machines, and taller ladders, states Stewart Carpenter, Extension Specialist, Ontario Department of Agriculture, and thus are more expensive to cultivate. Hence the interest in dwarf trees to keep costs down. There are presently some 75,000 dwarf apple trees in Ontario.

There are three popular rootstocks for dwarf trees: the Malling 2, which produces a tree two-thirds to three-quarters the size of standard trees; the Malling 7, which grows to about half the size of standard trees; and the Malling 9, which reaches a height of eight feet.

The Malling 2 can be planted 25-30 feet apart. It is well anchored and needs no support but is recommended only for areas of Southern Ontario free from extremely low temperatures. Both Malling 7 and Malling 9 are not well anchored, and require support to prevent toppling with a heavy crop. Malling 7 can be planted from 20 to 25 feet apart and Malling 9 from 10 to 12 feet apart. Their winter hardiness is similar to Malling 2. Of the three, Malling 9 is the best choice for the home gardener.

Additional details are included in Ontario Department of Agriculture Circular 334, Dwarf Fruit Trees for Orchard Use. It is obtainable at the office of the County Agricultural Representative, or from the Fruit and Vegetable Extension Service, Horticultural Experiment Station, Vineland, Ontario.

FARM SAFETY INFORMATION

As a result of the Provincial Farm Accident Survey now being conducted by the Extension Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, there has been a considerable demand for information dealing with farm safety, states T. R. Hilliard, Director of Extension, Ontario Department of Agriculture.

In order to provide more direction to farm safety promotion, Mr. H. E. Wright, Agricultural Engineering Specialist with the Extension Branch of the Department, assumes new responsibilities for the Branch's safety programme. Mr. Wright will work closely with the other branches of the Ontario Department of Agriculture, and with the various departments of the Ontario Agricultural College concerned with farm safety. He will also work closely with the Ontario Department of Transport in support of traffic safety education, and with the Home Economics Service of the Extension Branch whenever his work can be of assistance to it.

All matters concerning information, promotional aids, educational exhibits, and displays dealing with farm safety should be directed to H. E. Wright, Engineering Science Building, O.A.C., Guelph. All matters affecting the organization of the Provincial Farm Accident Survey and farm safety councils or associations should be addressed to The Director, Extension Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto.

THREE YEAR STUDY OF STRAWBERRY PRODUCTION COSTS

Strawberry production is an intensive enterprise.

A three-year study completed by the Farm Economics and Statistics Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture reveals that the average total cost of producing strawberries was $785 per harvested acre, 61 per cent of which was for labour. It is calculated that the average costs for 1958 would be $856 per acre picked. A total of 4,000 acres in Ontario in some years produces a crop worth two million dollars.

Some 49 per cent of the total average costs were for harvesting and marketing — mostly labour and containers; for the fresh fruit trade this percentage was even higher.

The labour requirements of 759 hours per acre (80 man work units) are three times as great for peaches, and almost 100 times that for field crops like spring grain and hay. More than half of the labour time is used in picking.

A summary of strawberry production costs is contained in Ontario Department of Agriculture Circular 342, obtainable at the office of the County Agricultural Representative.

phone Manager for this region, commented. "On that date all telephone numbers in that community will be completely changed and will include the exchange designation, Greenwood 6, followed by four figures. The new book then should not be used for Picton numbers until the cutover date of April 5th."

The Manager suggested that telephone users avail themselves of the Blue Book of Telephone Numbers, which can be obtained free from Bell Telephone offices, to keep an up-to-date list, of local and out-of-town numbers most frequently called.

The cover of the latest book, which last year carried a sketch of the County of Hastings Court House, highlights a drawing of Trenton's historic post office building. The sketch was drawn by Lorne Bouchard, A.R.C.A.

The new telephone book contains listings of customers in Belleville, Madoc, Trenton, Tweed, Brighton and surrounding territories, as well as those of Stirling and Picton.

Distribution of this year's book will amount to 32,445 copies, an increase of almost 1,400 over last year.

Successful Year At Mine In Marmoraton

The Marmoraton Mining Co., Ltd., in the Picton-Marmora area, operated on a normal schedule through 1958. This is reported in the annual report of the Ontario Department of Mines which has been released by the Minister, Hon. James A. Maloney, Q.C., M.P.P.

A total of 1,217,652 tons of crude ore was mined to produce slightly more than 530,000 tons of beneficiated iron ore in the form of pellets.

These pellets were shipped from the Company's ore dock at Picton. Waste stripping removed from the open pit during the year totalled 1,761,276 tons.

The 45-degree incline was extended a distance of 127 feet to the 40 ft. level pit pocket and hoisting from this pocket was started the latter part of November.

H. O. Olsen is general superintendent at the mine.
